THE BRIDGE

George Moore, of Hookstown, Well Known Here, Thrown Off His Horse This Morning.

AT A STREET CAR

Moore Was Fatally Injured In Attempting to Remount After Alighting.

HIS SON SAW THE ACCIDENT.

This morning George Moore, a prominent and well to do farmer of near Hookstown, started for this city for the purpose of doing some shopping. Owing to the exceedingly bad condition of the roads Mr. Moore decided to come on horseback and arrived in Chester shortly after 12 o'clock. The horse he rode was a young animal, and, like nearly all country horses, didn't like the street cars. Just as Mr. Moore started across the bridge he heard a street car coming. He got off, and, catching the horse by the bridle, he held it until after the car had passed and then attempted to get on again. In some way he got the reins mixed up and the horse threw him. He alighted on his head, and never spoke after he fell. He was picked up and carried to Good's restaurant and Dr. Hobbs summoned. When the physician arrived Moore was beyond human aid and he expired a short time after. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

Moore was one of the best known farmers about Hookstown. He owned a farm of about 200 acres. He is the father of three children, and one of his sons was with him when the fatal accident occurred. After Moore had expired the son left for Hookstown, where he told his mother of his father's sad end.

The remains will be taken to Hookstown either this evening or tomorrow morning.

Will Be Different.

The members of the graduating class this year intend, if possible, to have a different program at the annual commencement exercises, rather than have the old idea of having each graduate present an essay or an oration. They will have an interesting program.

The Annual Cleaning.

The annual cleaning up in the city will begin next week, and Street Commissioner Bryan served notice on the property owners today. An effort will be made to have the cleaning as thorough as possible this year.

Will Not Be Necessary.

If the present warm weather continues it will not be necessary to wash the streets any more this year, as the street department can sweep the streets and keep them clean.

CONDITION OF TRADE.

The Crockery Business Continues To Be Excellent And the Potteries Are Busy.

· With the advance of the season there is more effort being made in the way of securing orders, and both manufacturers and jobbers are actively engaged in this direction. The trade, either wholesale or retail, are not disposed to purchase very freely, but a conservative policy, which seeks to avoid the accumulation of goods, is being very generally pursued. Inasmuch, however, as there is a fairly large consumption the current needs of dealers require a steady replenishment of their stocks and so their demands on first hands, if not heavy individually, are frequent. On some lines potteries are behind with their orders and none of them is heavily stocked. The general outlook of trade continues excellent, labor is well employed and at higher wages than have been current heretofore recently, and prosperity prevails throughout the country without any early prospect of a cessation of these favorable conditions. The factories are all engaged to full capacity and the output and shipments larger than at any previous time.-China, Glass and Lamps.

DEMOCRATS PUSHING THE CASE

Not Yet Decided Whether the Hearings Will Be Held In Secret or Public Session.

A telegram to the Pittsburg Dispatch

Just now the interest in the Macram matter centers in the question whether the investigation by the Foreign Affairs committee or the sub committee acting for it shall be a public or a secret one. Chairman Hitt's first idea was that, inasmuch as the matter contains relations with a foreign power, it should be secret, but there was no decision on that point.

The Democrats, who are intent on making political capital out of the matter have set up such a howl against the proposition to hear the former consul in secret that Macrum, who arrived here this afternoon, has been lost sight of. Chairman Hitt said tonight that he would consuit members of the committee in time, so that there will be no delay in the hearing, which will begin

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For Week Deginning March 25-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.-The glory of obedience,-Math. xxi, 28

The topic is illustrated by the parable of the two sons, in which Christ leads the fault finding Jews to condema themselves and pay a tribute to the obedience of the gentiles.

THE PARABLE.

"A certain man had two sons, and he work today in my vineyard.' He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' and he went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father?"

THE INTERPRETATION. The father is God. The first son represents the gentiles, the second the Jews. The vineyard is the church. The gentiles represent the unregenerate sinner, who makes no pretension, at the first call, to serve God; but, then, after thought and consideration, he repents and does serve him. The Jews, on the other hand, pretended to serve God, but were hypocritical in their pretenses. They said, "I go, sir." but went not. Of the two classes, the former, of course, came nearer to doing the will of God.

THE APPLICATION.

Though Christ spoke this parable for the benefit of the chief priests and elders who were trying to entrap Him, yet it has a universal application. The representatives of these two types of people have been in the world in all ages and are here today. The first makes no pretension of serving God and often boasts of the fact that they are not hypocrities at least, but this does not relieve them of the sin of disobedience. The man who shamelessly and boastfully proclaims his disobedience does not thereby relieve himself of it. It is not the confession of the boaster, but the confession of the penitent, that brings forgiveness and pardon. It was only when this son repented and obeyed his father that he was worthy of praise, and, therefore, how much better it would have been had he willingly obeyed from the first call. And what a risk be ran in disobeying for a time! The opportunity to repent and to do his father's will might never have come to him again. It is only by comparison with the other class that glory is attached to his obedience. The noblest glory shines round our obedience when at the first command, "Go work," we answer, "I go, sir," and then go.

The second class represents those whose religion is only a hypocritical pretense. They profess to be doing God's will while they are not doing it. They say, "I go," and go not. They have the form of godliness, but not the power. They have a name to live, but are dead. Let us guard ourselves against the error of this class. If we have said, "I go," let us go; let us willingly obey, at any cost or sacrifice, for if we do not obey God we shall come short of the glory of God. "Obedience is better than sacrifice," for without obedience no sacrifice is acceptable unto God.

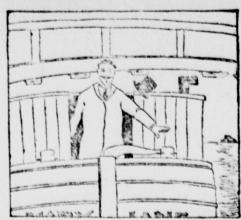

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a Bible class meeting. Let the leader have a Bible in his hand as he opens the topic, passing it to another when he closes, as a signal for him to take part, and he to another, until all have taken part.

The Rush of Modern Times.

The dire effect of the present driv ing rate at which life is forced along is beginning to show itself in two important directions. First, while the average of life is longer because of the improved condition of child life, the life of men and women, but especially men, is growing shorter. The pressure to go fast is making men old before their time and is laying many of them in the grave. Good John Woolman. the American Quaker of last century. used to say that God never meant men to toil and moil as they generally do for a living, and, somehow, we shall have to be brought to the conclusion "that man shall not live by bread alone. but by every word that proceedeth out kins' drug store. They cured me." of the mouth of God." This rush all day long is lot life. Second, with this rapidity of pace we are told that origithe house for 85 days with sciatic nallty is becoming rarer every year and "a casual type of mind" is being take no other.

"Look out!" cried the captain, as the canal-boat was passing under a low bridge. A Frenchman immediately put his head out of the cabin window to look, and got a severe blow. Rubbing his head rue-fully, he cried: "Why do these Yankees call look out when they mean look in?

Look out for your health means look in. For the secret of health is within you. Germs are in the air you breathe and in the water you drink, but if your blood is pure and your stomach sound the germs can find no permanent lodgement.

To keep the blood and stomach in sound health or to re-establish them in a healthy condition when they are diseased, no medicine is so effective as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. purifies the blood, cleanses the system of waste and poisonous substances, increases the activity of the blood making glands, and invigorates the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I can say honestly and candidly that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin, and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars, paying doctors' bills, but received no benefit. A year or two ago I decided to try Dr, Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

BRUTAL PRIZE FIGHT.

Erne Knocked From It's Socket One of Gans' Eyes-Thus Won Bout, In New York.

NEW YORK, March 24.-Frank Erne. of Buffalo, successfully defended his title of lightweight champion of the world against Joe Gans, colored, of Baltimore, at the Broadway Athletic club. Erne did most of the heavy fighting, displaying better judgment and more skill than his opponent.

Gans received his punishment gamely until the twelfth round, when his lest eye was started from its socket by a terrific right hand swing from the Butfalo boy. Gans was helpless and there was no alternative for the referee but to award the decision to Erne.

Protestantism in Austria

From official reports of Protestant pastors in Austria for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1899, we learn that 1,876 men, 912 women and 536 children, or 8.275 in all, during that time left the Catholic church to become Protestants. In previous years the average accessions from all sources for the same period to Protestant churches were only 656. Among the converts is Alois Walch, formerly priest of the Servite order.-Exchange.

Since the adoption of the constitution of 1787, the people of the United States have held 28 different presidential elections, and elected 20 different individuals to that exalted office, which has been held by 24 different Americans, altogether. Seven (Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and Grant) were re-elected for a second successive term, and one (Cleveland) was re-elected for a second term after having left the office; and all of them (except Lincoln) lived to serve out their second terms. COLUMBUS CORRESPONDENT OF CLEVELAND LEADER

Sizes Up the Congressional Contest In This District-All Eyes On Columbiana,

The following is a special from Columbus to the Cleveland Leader:

Columbiana county is the key to the Eighteenth district congressional nomination. This is admitted by a number of prominent Republicans from the district who are here today, ining former Lieutenant Covernor

Asa W. Jones and Julius Whiting, of Canton. Accordingly there is general interest in the Columbiana county primaries, which occur today.

Should Tayler be defeated in his own county, Stark, 75 per cent of which is for him, would desert him for Baker. If Tayler wins at home, he will have all of Stark and be renominated without further trouble. Accordingly, all eyes in the Eighteenth district are on Columbiana.

The Mahoning county Republicans have shrewdly agreed to wait until Stark and Columbiana counties have chosen their delegates, and then Mahoning is to meet in convention and decide what to do. If either Tayler or Baker has enough votes to nominate without Mahoning, the convention at Youngstown will endorse the victor. If not, Mahoning will unite in support of a local candidate. Whether this candidate be Judge James P. Kennedy, Senator Wirt, or former Lieutenant Governor Asa W. Jones is immaterial. The point is that Mahoning will get together. Governor Jones is not a candidate in the active sense, and the probabilities are that Judge Kennedy will be settled upon. However, it is too early to allow Governor Jones to take himself out of the race, though he seems to be desirous of so doing.

The Grenade Throwers.

The granadiers, the senior of British regiments which compose the brigade of guards, got its name from the fact that toward the end of the eighteenth century the men were armed with hand grenades to throw among the enemy. They had to be in the front of the fighting line; hence they gained a reputation for bravery and the name of the "grenadiers." The badge of the regiment is still a hand grenade spouting flames, though that deadly engine of war has long since been superseded -Scottish-American.

Dr. Lee's Term as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Will Expire Soon.

TOK RETURN

To Preach a Farewell Sermon Although Urged to Do So.

A LARGE LIST OF APPLICANTS.

The resignation of Dr. John Lloyd Lee as pastor of the First Presbyterian church goes into effect one week from tomorrow, and it is stated that he will not return here to preach a farewell sermon, although he has been urged to do so by his very many warm friends in the congregation. Whether the statement is true or not is not known, although Dr. Lee said goodbye to the session when he left the city.

It has not been decided just when the congregation will vote on a pasfor to fill the pulpit, as there is still several applicants to be heard before the vote is taken. The congregation will probably be without a pastor for some time yet, as there is a desire on the part of all to give all the applicants a chance to be heard. The congregation was without a pastor for several months after Dr. Marshall resigned, and it is probable no pastor will be selected before fall.

How Justice Was Tempered.

Tact in the management of your judge is a great thing. A certain well known British treasury counsel was driving over Blackfriars bridge one day on his way to Surrey sessions. Noticing Sir Peter Edlin trudging along in the mud and rain, he instantly stopped his hansom and offered the judge a "lift." It was accepted, and the pair proceeded to Newington in great amity. Arriving, the learned counsel hurried in, as he had an important application to make on the sitting of the court. To his horror and surprise, the of a battle which he had won. But he said application was curtly refused. He was dumfounded at the sudden change in the demeanor of the judge until the usher in a husky whisper

"Do you know what you've done?"

"No! What is it?"

"Why, you ran in and left the judge to pay for your cab."

To Those Who Hesitate.

In every man's life there come moments when he is called to decide whether to go forward or to stand still. Timidity says. "Hesitate." Prudence says: "Be not too hasty. Take aim." Belf interest says: "You may hurt yourself. You may run risks. You may in-Jure your prospects of worldly success." But conscience says: "The hour has come. Go and do your duty." And everything generous and noble in the heart responds and says. "Amen!"-Christian Uplook.

Made It a Burlesque.

Franklin Fyles recalls some amusing first night experiences in his article on at the White House. "The Theater and Its People" in The Ladies' Home Journal. One be relates is of Laura Doc, now dead: "She had the role of an Egyptian princess in 'Fresh, the American.' It was intended that she should be seriously and sectimentally impressive, while the ate John T. Raymond, the star of the company, should be contrastingly comical as the lover. But the audience would not have it so. Nor was it anything in Miss Don's appearance, for she was beautiful, nor in her acting, for it was clever, that made the people laugh. It came of a miscalculation by the author. The quick witted woman, seeing that she could not control the audience, resolved to humor it. By an exaggeration of speech and manner she turned the part into burlesque. and it was always after acted in that

The Iceland Dinner.

In Iceland the native's dinner usually consists of dried fish and butter. The fish is ling or cod, which, when caught, is split open and then hung on the lines by the seashore to dry in the cold winds and hot sun. When thus preserved, they will keep for years. being as hard as the nether millstone. When wanted for dinner, the fish is well hammered by a stone mallet and then cut up into strips. In this state it is eaten, but it is said that it needs an Icelander's teeth to get through the meat. The butter is not spread on the fish, but the two are taken alternately, first a mouthful of tish, then a mouthful of butter. It may easily be supposed that the Icelander is thankful to have his jaws well greased after every mouthful of the tough morsel.

His Answer Was Beassuring. Mgr. Caitno, the simple hearted and ingenuous Frenchman, happened to be riding in a 'rain in the same compartment with a lady who was in constant fear of a smashup. At every sudden stop, every jar, every sound of the bell or whistle, she cried out: "Oh! Oh! Have we run off the track? Is it a collision? Are we going to be killed?" Calino paid no attention, but remained wrapped in solemn silence. Presently the lady said to him: "And you, sir, aren't you arraid of railroad accidents?" "Not 1, madame," answered Calino reassuringly. "It has been foretall that I am to die on the guillating."

COMES TO VOTE TODAY

Porto Ricon Aid Bill on Final. Passage In House.

ALREADY THROUGH THE SENATE.

fillman Gave the Tariff Bill Advocates a Hot Sooring-Had Tilt With Foraker. Perkins Statement-Gallinger Defends Attitude of Tariffites.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-The conferecne report on the Porto Ricon relief bill was presented and 1 p. m. today set as the time for voting on it.

The senate adopted the conference report on the relief bill by a vote of 35 to 15, practically a strict party expression. No Democrat voted for the report, but Mr. Stewart (Nev.) voted with the Republicans.

The time of discussion was consumed principally by Mr. Tillman (Dem., S. C.), who made a flerce attack upon the measure, as agreed upon in conference, and accused the Republican senators and the Republican party of indirection, hypocrisy and "dirty work." His speech was quite characteristic and was listened to with interest by his colleagues on the floor and the people in the galleries.

Mr. Tillman declared himself in favor of free trade with Porto Rico. In answer to a question he said in part:

If we are to continue to hold the Philippines, I'm in favor of free trade with those islands. Those who voted to bring into the country the islands, with their cheap contract, peon and Malay isborers, were told of the results that would follow the ratification of the treaty. And you could not get the votes necessary to make the treaty law until you had bought some men to vote for it."

Referring to the recent speech of Mr. Beveridge, Mr. Tillman declared it had been distributed among the Filipinos and had infused new life and energy into the revolution, because it indicated the hypocrisy and double dealing the United States had resorted to in the treatment of the Filipinos.

"The people," he shouted, "will teach you next November that trade and the flag and liberty and the constitution go together." Further along, Mr. Tillman asked:

"Is the president a free trader today, or is he following close behind the car driven by the men who want protection against the little island in the Caribbean sea?"

After waiting an instant, Mr. Tillman said: "Of course there is a dense silence in the chamber, as a response to my inquiry. The senator from Ohio (Foraker), too, is doubtful as to his position. I'd like to know if he is in favor of free trade with Porto Rico?"

Mr. Foraker replied that his position had been set forth fully in his speech on the Porto Ricon government bill.

"This slight and not burdensome tax," said Mr, Foraker, "was determined upon by the committee as a generous and merciful means of alleviating the sufferings of the people of Porto Rico T'

Mr. Tillman replied that he had not read the report, that the senator from Ohio had changed

Further along, in connection with an editorial in the Chicago Times-Herald, he said: "The senator, I think, got out of the free trade boat as soon as Mr. Kohlsaat (the editor of The Times-Herald) got into it." Mr. Foraker: "I will say to the senator and nate, that I have been much more comfortable in my position since I learned that Mr. Kohisaat had declared for free trade." [Laughter.] Continuing, Mt. Tillman said: "I believe that Mr. McKinley is one of the most lovable men in public life; but the trouble with him is that sometimes he hasn't the backbone to stand up against his party friends." Disclaiming any authority to speak for the President, Mr. Perkins (Cal.) said that the belief that the sugar trust had acquired the greater part of the sugar product of Porto Rico, and his desire to build up the beet sugar industry in the United States had induced the president, he (Perkins) believed, to favor a tariff, if it were true that he did favor it. Mr. Gallinger pointed out that four-fifths of the products exported from Porto Rico consisted of coffee. Upon this the United States placed no tariff.

"We are proposing to treat Porto Rico bet-ter than we treat any territory of the United States. We collect internal revenue taxes in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Arizona, and every dollar of it goes into the United States treasury. We shall collect internal revenue taxes in Porto Rico, too, but every dollar so collected will be returned to the Porto Ricons and be used for their benefit.'

"The trust which is suffering," said Mr. Gallinger at one point, "is a trust headed by the British vice consul at San Juan. That trust bought up the sugar under the full Dingley rates, and, if they can get it into this country free of duty, they will make the full 100 per cent of the tariff, but if we succeed in putting a tariff duty of 15 per cent of the Dingley rate on that sugar, the trust's profits will be cut down by that much and the people of Porto Rico will benefit to that extent."

Mr. Spooner (Rep., Wis.) closed the debate with a forceful statement in opposition to Mr. Tillman's speech, in the course of which he took occasion sharply to criticise the South Carolina senator for dragging the measure into politics. He had some colloquial tilts with Mr. Tillman.

TOOK PORTO RICONS' TRADE.

Boston Editor So Declared-Gave Them Nothing In Return-Conditions

In the Island.

NEW YORK, March 24.—James Jeffrey Roche, editor of the Boston Pilot, was a passenger aboard the United States Phillipston, Pa.

transport McClellan, which reached port from San Juan, Porto Rico, and Santiago de Cuba. Mr. Roche spent Topic For the Week Beginning three weeks on the island of Porto Rico, observing the people and their condition. From his experiences while there, Mr. Roche said that he was compelled to confess "the United States is in the yard." ungracious position of having deprived the islanders of their foreign trade and given them nothing in place of it."

He said in part: The island is over populated and, as the doctrine of Malthus has never taken root there. further crowding is inevitable. There is a great deal of poverty there, due to the results of the burricane last August and the want of work at present. The people are in a distressing state of suspense, which prevents all trade until the tariff question is settled.

The military government is well administered for the most part, and under any conditions is likely to remain a necessity for some time to come.

The Porto Ricons are not fit for full inde pendence. The result of Spain's misgovernment is apparent everywhere. It is the origin of all the evils in the island, ignorance, poverty and whatever lawlessness there may be. Porto Rico is no place for Americans to go with a view to occupation, manual or otherwise. Labor is too cheap. Unless all testimony be untrue, it is no place either for our "smarter" politicians, for the native can been them in every phase of the game.

INJUNCTIONS AGAINST LABOR.

Gompers and Darrow Ask House Committee For Preventive Legislation.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor; C. S. Darrow, of Chicago, and others identified with organized labor appeared before the judiciary committee of the house in advocacy of the bill restricting the issuance of injunctions in time of labor disturbances. Mr. Darrow cited the Debs case as typical, and related how a "blanket injunction" was issued against a large number of those connected with the American Railway union.

Mr. Gompers urged that the labor interests wanted to retain the time honored trial by jury. They insisted, he said, that there should be no injunction in a labor dispute, for labor had no remedy when the injunction was once is-

HARRISBURG, March 24.—The legislative bribery cases will be called for trial today, before Judge Simonton. The Coyle case will be called first. These cases were to have been called Friday, but the time of the court was taken up with the trial of Charles Washington, for the murder of "Sheeny" Bell last November.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

March 25 "The Glory of Obedience"-Text. Math. xxi, 28-32.

The first son refused. Afterward, as he thought over the matter, he went. It was tardy obedience, but was much better than utter neglect or refusal. The other son said, "I go, sir," but got no farther. Perhaps he intended to go. Possibly he was one of those easy people who can never say "No," always wishing to please every one, profuse in professions of friendship and fidelity. but with no stamina. "I go," he said. but he never started. The purpose never took hold of him below his lips.

In this parable Jesus unmasks the insincerity of the religious men of His times and country. They were extremely rigid in all the forms of religion. They prayed long and often and publicly so that the common people would see them. They gave money to the poor openly, fasted often, were regular in attendance upon the temple and synagogue services. They loved to be called very religious. Titles of respect pleased them. Official position in the Jewish church was eagerly sought. All the outside of piety they cultivated with extremest care.

But they never regarded God with affection nor came to know themselves as lacking the first elements of genuine Deep, whole souled thirst for the right and search for the God of mercy and Judge MacMath, in 1865, was made goodness never was known to them. United States commissioner to negotiate They were actors, playing and imitating, with never a touch of the noble passions they sought to exhibit. They were called of God to special service in carrying divine truth and salvation to the world. Prophets had been sent them as never were sent any other people. They had a special mission to mankind. They professed great reverence for the God of their fathers and promised obedience continually and claimed peculiar sanctity as better than other men.

In reality they held the most vital characteristics of God in contempt, refused the call of Jehovah to be pure in heart and life and compassionate to men. Irreverence toward the truth and intolerance of opposition became marked features of their nature. They had a mission to the nations around them to bring them to God. They despised those not Jews and shut the doors of opportunity against them. Instead of being holy they became hateful and malignant. God said to them, "Go work in My vineyard." They said. 'We go," but went not and hindered others going.

The important lesson for us in this parable lies in its application to present day affairs more than in a study of history of Jesus' times.

The call for work is as urgent now as ever. It comes to you. How do you answer? Weak compliance or promise of obedience under persuasion in revival meetings is not enough. Saying "l will be a Christian" because some one urges you to do so never will make you such. If you will go into God's vineyard, you need to carefully consider all it means. When you decide, you will need all the manliness and womaniness in you. This is earnest work and not playing a part on a stage before folks. God calls. Will you go or are you only talking?

A Leaguer In a High Place.

Wit and Wisdom.

To be able to make a witty after dinner speech or tell a funny story so that it sounds comical is not possible for the most of folks, and many wish to possess the rare ability. Far better is it to seek to know and tell useful truth rather than the merely humorous. Don't be deluded into the idea that the funny man is the one you should try to imitate. The best wit is wisdom, and the man who gets the ears of people worth having as listeners is not the one who has a reputation as a joker.

The Philippines already have a Methodist Episcopal church in Manila, and Bishop Thoburn expects soon to have a district in the islands and occupy strategic points as opportunity opens.

TO END MARTIAL LAW.

Congress Asked to Secure Removal of Troops In Idaho.

Washington, March 24.—Senator Allen, in the senate, and Representative Lentz, in the house, introduced a joint resolution setting forth the continued maintenance of martial law in the Couer d'Alene mining country as improper, unnecessary and unlawful, and that the president be requested to withdraw the troops in Shoshone county unless the permit system be immediately revoked, the writ of habeas corpus restored to the citizens of said county and martial law declared to be at an end.

It was also further resolved that the sense and purpose of the resolution was in no wise to influence in maintaining and keeping troops within the limits of Shoshone county to aid the proper officers in the execution of the civil law.

The resolution is preceded by a long recital of the alleged improper conditions existing.

Carnegie Partners Subscribed to New Agreement.

WILL BE NO WATERED STOCK.

Lawyer Dill to Go to New Jersey to Secure the Incorporation of the New Company-Further Insures Pittsburg as World's Steel Center.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The organization of the new Carnegie Steel company is under way. Attorney James B. Dill, the eastern corporation lawyer, arrived in Pittsburg, prepared the papers in consultation with ex-Judge James H. ment. The program is to vote down all Reed, had them signed and the entire amendments if possible to do so, and capitalization was subscribed. Mr. Dill pass the bill as it came from the will likely return to Newark this evening and file the articles of incorporation in New Jersey on Monday. The amalgamated company will still further insure the supremacy of Ettsburg as the iron and sleel center of the constitution of the constitution in the senate favoring free trade with Porto Rico decided at a conference to oppose any action looking to an early vote and to ask for further time in case the question should come up.

The stock capital of the new company will be $160,000,000 and bonds, bearing 5 per cent interest, will be issued to the cus committee admitted that no great same amount. This will make the aggregate capital $320,000,000. The bonds will represent the conservative book determination to press for an early vote, value of the concerns incorporated, as figured out by Andrew Carnegie, H. C. Frick, Henry Phipps and other leaders in the combination movement. The capital stock and bonds together will represent the actual value of the property, or its earning power, according to the best estimates of the Carnegie partners, who have been figuring on the matter for weeks.

The interest on the bonds will only require the payment annually of a little more than $8,000,000, but it is believed that the company's earnings will never in the future go this low.

The Carnegie Steel company, limited which carries with it the control of the various railroads, docks, iron ore mining property and steamship lines, wil be taken into the new Carnegie com pany at a valuation of $250,000,000 This will be exchanged for in stock and bonds of the new capitalization, $125, 600,000 in bonds representing the newly arranged boos value, and $125,000,000 in stock representing the value Mr. Carnegie places on his own value above the

It was said that no water will be allowed in the company, and it is generally believed by bankers that the estimates are conservative, taking into account the great earning power of the property. The book value will be guar-anteed, and will naturally be the base value of the company to be taken in. Only one kind of stock will be issued.

The H. C. Frick Coke company will be taken into the amalgamation at a value of about $75,000,000. About $35,-$00,000 will be paid to the coke share-holders in the bonds of the new Carnegic company, and a similar amount will be taken in stock. It is probable that the odd $5,000,000 will be placed in the new company treasury.

Partners in the Carnegie and Frick companies were summoned from all parts of the country to affix their signa-tures to the transfer of their stock to the new corporation and to subscribe to the capital of the new company. All the shares and bonds that were apportioned to each stockholder in the two companies were taken readily, and last evening Mr. Dill had the entire capital subscribed for.

Bishop Fowler Points Out the Desire of Methodism-Week of Prayer Next Week.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 24.—Bishop Charles H. Fowler, who has returned from the Philadelphia conference to the Episcopal residence in this city, gave expression of his views, which, in substance, follow:

The week of fasting, or abstinence, or prayer the Methodist Episcopal church will extend from March 25 to April 1, inclusive. Each person makes his own interpretation of abstinence. In reviewing our work over the whole world, we found we have declined a little in numbers, perhaps one-half of 1 per cent. Numbers are not the most important element in church life, but rather spiritual quality; then comes quantity; the more the better, provided we cun digest the numbers.

Every fifth grave in the south where reposes a blue uniform contains a communicant from a Methodist Episcopai church. So we must plant the heathen continents with Methodist graves. One member of the committee stated that it was the purpose of the committee to ask every day that a time be set for taking a vote, thus placing the responsi-bility for any delay that might occur upon the free traders.

Demonstrations against the delay of the United States government in settling open questions have recently been held at Mayaguez, Yauco, Arecibo. Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, Said Insurrection Yet Existed In the Coeur d'Alene Country.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—During the examination of Governor Steunenberg, before the Idaho strike investigating committee, he maintained that there was no declaration that the writ of habeas corpus was suspended. He stated that while he did not repudiate the action the attorney general took in pleading that the writ was suspended, that officer acted on his own responsibility on law pleadings. The governor said his attitude as to the military was that of commander-in-chief of the military forces in the state.

When asked how much longer he intended to continue the military control he said it would be continued until there was fall assurance that order was restored and all rights secured from vio-

LONDON, March 24.—A Bloemfontein correspondent of The Daily News, telegraphing Thursday, said:

A letter from Mr. Poulteney, an interpreter in the Free State courts, has been received by his wife here, in which the writer declares that General Joubert is commanding the combined forces at Kroonstadt, where there is a plenty of then, guns and foodstuffs for a determined resistance.

London, March 24.-4:15 a. m.-Lord Roberts' main army continues vaiting at Bloemfontein. The sentime tal interest in the fate of Mafeking has intensified with Colonel Plumer's forced retirement to Crocedils Pools, where he was two months ago. Relief from the north now dwindles to improbability.

Lord Methuen is skirmishing with the Boers at Warrenton, 167 miles away. Although seeming in force sufficient to do pretty much as he likes, he has not advanced these five days.

General French's cavalry and mounted infantry, according to a rumor, are fighting somewhere east of Bloemfon-tein. Commandant Oliver's commando, with 2,000 wagons, are reported on the Basutoland frontier, toiling northward toward Kroonstadt, via Ladybrand. This enormous wagon train is supposed to be moving 25 miles a day. General French's cavalry posts stretch from Bloemfontein eastward to the moun-

"The following is from Plumer: Lobatsi, March 14. The Boers advanced from the south in considerable force this morning. They first advanced from Goode's Siding. After a sharp little engagement, Lieutenant Colonel Bodle's advanced post was compelled to retreat. The retirement was excently carried out to our main position. The casualties included Lieutenant Chapman and a corporal, prisoners, and two missing, probably prisoners. Five troopers were wounded.

"Chapman's horse fell with him close to the enemy, who immediately surrounded him. The exact Boer casualties are unknown, but several were shot at short range. In the afternoon the Boers advanced further north and shelled our position from a ridge on our left Our 12½ pounder replied, the artillery duel continuing until sunset. Lieutenant A. J. Incident of Powers' Hearing, at Frankfort. Ky .- Raid of Mountaineers

Guarded Against.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 24 .- The preliminary examination of Secre ary of State Caleb Powers, charged with abetting the assassination of William Goebel, began before Judge Moore, in this city. The court house was guarded, inside and out, by militia and scores of deputy sheriffs, armed with Winchester rifles, to prevent possible interference from "mountaineers" who were reported on their way to Frankfort. The mountaineers failed to appear. The witnesses included Warden Eph Lillard, Detective Dee Armstrong, Sheriff Bosworth, of Fayette county, who arrested Secretary Powers and Captain John Davis, and Silas Jones, who is now under bends, charged with complicity in the murder. The testimony tended to show that the shots came from the section of the executive building in which Secretary Powers' office is located, although no one swore that the shots were from the secretary's office. The strongest evidence, perhaps, was given by Silas Jones, who walked into Gevernor Taylor's ante room when the shots were

There he saw Captain Davis and Governor Taylor, among others.

There was considerable excitement, the governor came to the door and wanted to know

"Did you see any one try to open Caleb Powers' door?" asked Attorney Polsgrove.
"Yes, I saw a man with sandy whiskers trying to open the door. He struck it with a hatchet," replied Mr. Jones.

Jones said there was much noise, but he could not say that he heard any from Secretary Powers' office.

On cross-examination Jones said he saw Powers leave his office during the morning for Louisville. This was previous to the shooting. No evidence was adduced tending to show that the defendant was implicated in any conspiracy, but in one of the frequent wordy disputes between the attorneys for the defense and the commonwealth, the fact was brought out that F. Wharton Golden, who is said to have made a confession, will be put on the witness stand before the hearing ends.

Brown made the point that a man can not be burg and to the lowest point since April convicted as an aider of a crime unless some principal is convicted of the crime. As the actual murderer of Goebel has not yet been named, the point possibly involved the liberty of Secretary Powers. Judge Moore ruled against the defense. Prosecuting Attorney Polsgrove said that sufficient evidence had already been heard to warrant holding Powers, but that the case would be much stronger before he was through. On the other hand former Governor Brown, for the defense, expressed himself as well pleased with the situation, regarding the evidence that far as decidedly weak.

FIRST WEEK OF NEW LAW.

Satisfactory to Treasury and Banks-Carnegle-Frick Settlement Helps Iron. Dun's Review.

New York, March 24.-R. G. Dan & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today, said in part:

In its first week of operation, the new monetary bill has given satisfaction at the treasury and to banks. Applications for new 2 per cents have exceeded $106,000,000, and the net increase in bank circulation is already over $10,000,-000. As the rate at which new circulation can be issued is limited, except for banks which gave orders in advance of the bill, and the issues at first are largely for the increase of notes to the par value of bonds deposited, little can yet be in-ferred regarding the other increase, though applications indicate that it will be large for interior banks. The release of millions employed in preparation for action under the new measure has caused in bank returns considerable changes, which are nominal, rather than real, and the money markets are undisturbed. The reported settlement of the Carnegie-Frick controversy is of t'an greatest importance to the iron and seel industry. A fight between such forces would in the end have affected prices and values beyond calculation, while the combination of interests now said to be agreed upon may prove revolu-tionary in its influence. Whether mar-kets will be immediately affected is not clear. As yet the tendency toward reaction of prices continues, though in the Pittsburg region Bessemer and basic pig are strong, But eastern Bes semer and Grey forge and southern pig are sold there at prices below those govwhich appears to exceed the supply. The state of the goods market does not encourage manufacturers to pay the prices now asked. There is not only little ground to expect an advance in prices, but in other than the leading grades some concessions are frequently made to secure transactions, and the business is still disappointingly restricted.

The weakness in Sugar was due to the explicit announcement that recent negotiations for a compromise of the trade war had been abandoned. The iron and steel stocks continued dull and rather heavy on account of the machinists' strike.

Money continued in good supply up to the close. The sub-treasury has com-menced to disburse the premium on government bonds deposited for conversion into the new 2s, and as a consequence the losses by the banks for the week on sub-treasury operations are reduced to $1,187,000, and this is almost offset by receipts of gold from Canada and other points. The shipments to the interior are almost exactly offset by the receipts.

The bond market was less active than Thursday and yielded at some points in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,585,000.

United States 2s advanced 1/2 and the refunding 2s, when issued, declined ½ in the bid price.

The Candidates Closed Their Campaigns In the City Yesterday Afternoon.

LARGE VOTE IS EXPECTED

And No Person Is Trying to Tell Just What the Result Will Be.

THE CONTEST WILL BE CLOSE.

The primary election being held in this city this afternoon has aroused a great deal of interest, and it is expected that there will be a large vote out, although none but known Republicans will be permitted to cast their ballots and the central committee is being assisted by challengers, who will see that the rule is carefully obeyed.

This city has long been recognized as the key to Columbiana county politics, and for that reason the candidates made a much harder fight here than in any other place in the county, and the voter who has not been approached by a candidate for some office was either sick or moved out of the city.

None of the candidates will have a walkover in this city, and it is expected that the vote will be close. Hon. R. W. Tayler and C. C. Baker, candidates for congress, closed their campaigns yesterday in this city, as did Judge I. H. Taylor and Ralph S. Ambler, candidates for common pleas judge. T. O. Kelly and J. J. All the central committee candidates are working hard for themselves, and it is expected there will be some surprises when the votes are counted this evening. This fight was made possible by the printing of the names on the ballots, something that was never done before in this city, and the party who now becomes a member of the committee must have the votes to get the office.

The polls do not close until 7 o'clock, and for that reason it will be a little late when the count is in, but it is thought the result in this city will be known by 11 o'clock.

A RUN OFF.

A Brewery Team Ran Away And Struck Another Wagon, Causing a Smash Up.

Yesterday afternoon a team attached to a brewery wagon ran off and made a good run through the Diamond. At the corner of Sixth and West Market streets the team ran into another wagon which was coming out Sixth street. One of the brewery horses went right through the middle of the wagon and the team never stopped, but continued out Green lane, where they were captured. The driver of the wagon into which the team ran described a semi-circle in the air and alighted on the ground worse scared than he was hurt. His wagon was cut right in two, but he managed to place the bed on the front axle, tie it up with wire and drive off, leaving two rear wheels behind. The affair was very exciting, but no one was hurt.

THE BRIDGe

George Moore, of Hookstown, Well Known Here, Thrown Off His Horse This Morning.

STREET CAR

Moore Was Fatally Injured In Attempting to Remount After Alighting.

HIS SON SAW THE ACCIDENT.

This morning George Moore, a prominent and well to do farmer of near Hookstown, started for this city for the purpose of doing some shopping. Owing to the exceedingly bad condition of the roads Mr. Moore decided to come on horseback and arrived in Chester shortly after 12 o'clock. The horse he rode was a young animal, and, like nearly all country horses, didn't like the street cars. Just as Mr. Moore started across the bridge he heard a street car coming. He got off, and, catching the horse by the bridle, he held it until after the car had passed and then attempted to get on again. In some way he got the reins mixed up and the horse threw him. He alighted on his head. and never spoke after he fell. He was picked up and carried to Good's restaurant and Dr. Hobbs summoned. When the physician arrived Moore was beyond human aid and he expired a short time after. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

Moore was one of the best known farmers about Hookstown. He owned a farm of about 200 acres. He is the father of three children, and one of his sons was with him when the fatal accident occurred. After Moore had expired the son left for Hookstown, where he told his mothe of his father's sad end.

The remains will be taken to Hookstown either this evening or tomorrow morning.

Will Be Different.

The members of the graduating class this year intend, if possible, to have a different program at the annual commencement exercises, rather than have the old idea of having each graduate present an essay or an oration. They will have an interesting program.

The Annual Cleaning.

The annual cleaning up in the city will begin next week, and Street Commissioner Bryan served notice on the property owners today. An effort will be made to have the cleaning as thorough as possible this year.

Will Not Be Necessary.

If the present warm weather continues it will not be necessary to wash the streets any more this year, as the street department can sweep the streets and keep them clean.

CONDITION OF TRADE.

The Crockery Business Continues To Be Excellent And the Potteries Are Busy.

· With the advance of the season there is more effort being made in the way of securing orders, and both manufacturers and jobbers are actively engaged in this direction. The trade, either wholesale or retail, are not disposed to purchase very freely, but a conservative policy, which seeks to avoid the accumulation of goods, is being very generally pursued. Inasmuch, however, as there is a fairly large consumption the current needs of dealers require a steady replenishment of their stocks and so their demands on first hands, if not heavy individually, are frequent. On some lines potteries are behind with their orders and none of them is heavily stocked. The general outlook of trade continues excellent, labor is well employed and at higher wages than have been current heretofore recently, and prosperity prevails throughout the country without any early prospect of a cessation of these favorable conditions. The factories are all envious time.—China, Glass and Lamps.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-[Special]-Former Consul Macrum is at the capitol, having come on from his home in response to a telegram from Representative Wheeler, of Kentucky, bidding him to appear before the house committee on foreign affairs.

A telegram to the Pittsburg Dispatch says:

Just now the interest in the Macrum matter centers in the question whether the investigation by the Foreign Affairs committee or the sub committee acting for it shall be a public or a secret one. Chairman Hitt's first idea was that, inasmuch as the matter contains relations with a foreign power, it should be secret, but there was no decision on that point.

The Democrats, who are intent on making political capital out of the matter have set up such a howl against the proposition to hear the former consul in secret that Macrum, who arrived here this afternoon, has been lost sight of. Chairman Hitt said tonight that he would consult members of the committee in time, so that there will be no delay in the hearing, which will begin

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For Week Deginning March 25-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.-The glory of obedience.-Math. xxi, 28

The topic is illustrated by the parable of the two sons, in which Christ leads the fault finding Jews to condemu themselves and pay a tribute to the obedience of the gentiles.

THE PARABLE.

"A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' and he went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father?" THE INTERPRETATION.

The father is God. The first son represents the gentiles, the second the Jews. The vineyard is the church. The gentiles represent the unregenerate sinner, who makes no pretension, at the first call, to serve God; but, then, after thought and consideration, he repents and does serve him. The Jews, on the other hand, pretended to serve God, but were hypocritical in their pretenses. They said, "I go, sir," but went not. Of the two classes, the former, of course, came nearer to doing the will of God.

THE APPLICATION,

Though Christ spoke this parable for the benefit of the chief priests and elders who were trying to entrap Him, yet it has a universal application. The representatives of these two types of people have been in the world in all ages and are here today. The first makes no pretension of serving God and often boasts of the fact that they are not hypocrities at least, but this does not relieve them of the sin of disobedience. The man who shamelessly and boastfully proclaims his disobedience does not thereby relieve himself of it. It is not the confession of the boaster, but the confession of the penitent, that brings forgiveness and pardon. It was only when this son repented and obeyed his father that he was worthy of praise, and, therefore, how much better it would have been had he willingly obeyed from the first call. And what a risk be ran in disobeying for a time! The opportunity to repent and to do his father's will might never have come to him again. It is only by comparison with the other class that glory is attached to his obedience. The noblest glory shines round our obedience when at the first command, "Go work," we answer, "I go, sir," and then go.

The second class represents those whose religion is only a hypocritical pretense. They profess to be doing God's will while they are not doing it have the form of godliness, but not the power. They have a name to live, but are dead. Let us guard ourselves falo boy. Gans was helpless and there against the error of this class. If we have said, "I go." let us go; let us will ingly obey, at any cost or sacrifice, for if we do not obey God we shall come short of the glory of God. "Obedience is better than sacrifice," for without obedience no sacrifice is acceptable unto God.

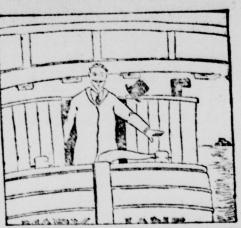

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a Bible class meeting. Let the leader have a Bible in his hand as he opens the topic, passing it to another when he closes, as a signal for him to take part, and he to another, until all have taken part.

Bible Readings .- Ex. xix, 5, 6; xxiii. 20-22; Lev. xxvi, 1-7; Deut. xxviii, 1-11; I Sam. xv, 22; Isa. 1, 18-20; Jer. vii, 23; xxvi, 12, 13; xxxviii, 17-20; Acts v, 29; Rom. v, 19; Phil. ii, 5-12; Heb. xi, 8-10; Rev. xxii, 14.

The Rush of Modern Times.

The dire effect of the present driv ing rate at which life is forced along is beginning to show itself in two important directions. First, while the average of life is longer because of the improved condition of child life, the life of men and women, but especially men, is growing shorter. The pressure to go fast is making men old before their time and is laying many of them in the grave. Good John Woolman, the American Quaker of last century. used to say that God never meant men to toil and moil as they generally do for a living, and, somehow, we shall have to be brought to the conclusion "that man shall not live by bread alone. but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." This rush all day long is lot life. Second, with this rapidity of pace we are told that origithe house for 85 days with sciatic nality is becoming rarer every year and "a casual type of mind" is being take no other.

"Look out!" cried the captain, as the canal-boat was passing under a 'ow bridge. A Frenchman immediately put his head out of the cabin window to look, and got a severe blow. Rubbing his head ruefully, he cried: "Why do these Yankees call look out when they mean look in? Look out for your health means look in.

For the secret of health is within you. Germs are in the air you breathe and in the water you drink, but if your blood is pure and your stomach sound the germs can find no permanent lodgement.

To keep the blood and stomach in sound health or to re-establish them in a healthy condition when they are diseased, no medicine is so effective as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. purifies the blood, cleanses the system of waste and poisonous substances, increases the activity of the blood making glands, and invigorates the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I can say honestly and candidly that Dr. Plerce's Golden Medical Discovery is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood." writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin, and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars, paying doctors' bills, but received no benefit. BRUTAL PRIZE FIGHT.

Erne Knocked From It's Socket One of Gans' Eyes-Thus Won Bout, In New York.

New York, March 24.-Frank Erne, of Buffalo, successfully defended him title of lightweight champion of the world against Joe Gans, colored, of Baltimore, at the Broadway Athletic club. Erne did most of the heavy fighting, displaying better judgment and more skill than his opponent.

Gans received his punishment gamely until the twelfth round, when his left the decision to Erne.

Protestantism in Austria.

From official reports of Protestant pastors in Austria for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1899, we learn that 1,876 men, 912 women and 536 children, or 8,275 in all, during that time left the Catholic church to become Protestants. In previous years the average accessions from all sources for the same period to Protestant churches were only 656. Among the converts is Alois Walch, formerly priest of the Service order.-Exchange.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

East Liverpool People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of East Liverpool more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

William Terrence, fireman at engine house No. 1 says :- "For some time I was annoyed with symptoms of either weakened or over-excited kidneys. I had noticed more than one recommendation made by people living in East Liverpool about Doan's Kidney Pills, and thinking that if the medicine performed half what it promised is might help me. I bought a box at Larkins' drug store. They cured me."

PRESIDENTIAL FACTS.

Since the adoption of the constitution of 1787, the people of the United States have held 28 different presidential elections, and elected 20 different individuals to that exalted office, which has been held by 24 different Americans, altogether. Seven (Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and Grant) were re-elected for a second successive term, and one (Cleveland) was re-elected for a second term after having left the office; and all of them (except Lincoln) lived to serve out to b their second terms. Four of the 24 (Tyler, Fillmore, Johnson and Arthur) were elected to the vice presider and succeeded to the presidency the death, respectively, of W. abon rison, Zachary Taylor, Abr H. Harcoln and James A. Garf .aham Lin-.eld, who died

COLUMBUS CORRESPONDENT OF CLEVELAND LEADER

Sizes Up the Congressional Contest In This District-All Eyes On Columbiana.

The following is a special from Columbus to the Cleveland Leader:

Columbiana county is the key to the Eighteenth district congressional nomination. This is admitted by a number of prominent Republicans from the district who are here today, in-

....g former Lieutenant Asa W. Jones and Julius Whiting, of Canton. Accordingly there is general interest in the Columbiana county primaries, which occur today.

Should Tayler be defeated in his own county, Stark, 75 per cent of which is for him, would desert him for Baker. If Tayler wins at home, he will have all of Stark and be renominated without further trouble. Accordingly, all eyes in the Eighteenth district are on Columbiana.

The Mahoning county Republicans have shrewdly agreed to wait until Stark and Columbiana counties have chosen their delegates, and then Mahoning is to meet in convention and decide what to do. If either Tayler or Baker has enough votes to nominate without Mahoning, the convention at Youngstown will endorse the victor. If not, Mahoning will unite in support of a local candidate. Whether this candidate be Judge James P. Kennedy, Senator Wirt, or former Lieutenant Governor Asa W. Jones is immaterial. The point is that Mahoning will get together. Governor Jones is not a candidate in the active sense, and the probabilities are that Judge Kennedy will be settled upon. However, it is too early to allow Governor Jones to take himself out of the race, though he seems to be desirous of so doing.

The Grenade Throwers.

The granadiers, the senior of British regiments which compose the brigade of guards, got its name from the fact that toward the end of the eighteenth century the men were armed with hand grenades to throw among the enemy. They had to be in the front of the fighting line; hence they gained a reputation for bravery and the name of the "grenadiers." The badge of the regiment is still a hand grenade spouting flames, though that deadly engine of war has long since been superseded -Scottish-American.

pr. Lee's Term as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Will Expire Soon.

RETURN TOK HERE

To Preach a Farewell Sermon manager of the Chester Grocery com-Although Urged to Do So.

A LARGE LIST OF APPLICANTS.

The resignation of Dr. John Lloyd Lee as pastor of the First Presbyterian church goes into effect one week from tomorrow, and it is stated that he will not return here to preach a farewell sermon, although he has been urged to do so by his very many warm friends in the congregation. Whether the statement is true or not is not known, although Dr. Lee said goodbye to the session when he left the city.

It has not been decided just when the congregation will vote on a pasfor to fill the pulpit, as there is still several applicants to be heard before the vote is taken. The congregation will probably be without a pastor for some time yet, as there is a desire on the part of all to give all the applicants a chance to be heard. The congregation was without a pastor for several months after Dr. Marshall resigned, and it is probable no pastor will be selected before fall.

How Justice Was Tempered.

Tact in the management of your judge is a great thing. A certain well known British treasury counsel was driving over Blackfriars bridge one day on his way to Surrey sessions. Noticing Sir Peter Edlin trudging along in the mud and rain, he instantly stopped his hansom and offered the judge a "lift." It was accepted, and the pair proceeded to Newington in great amity. Arriving, the learned counsel hurcation to make on the sitting of the en to his queen an impetuous account To his horror and surprise, the said application was curtly refused. He was dumfounded at the sudden change in the demeanor of the judge until the usher in a husky whisper maid:

"Do you know what you've done?"

"No! What is it?"

"Why, you ran in and left the judge to pay for your cab."

To Those Who Hezitate.

In every man's life there come moments when he is called to decide whether to go forward or to stand still. Timidity says. "Hesitate." Prudence says: "Be not too hasty. Take aim." Self interest says: "You may hurt your self. You may run risks. You may in-Jure your prospects of worldly success." But conscience says: "The hour has come. Go and do your duty." And everything generous and noble in the heart responds and says, "Amen."-Christian Uplook.

CHESTER MEN ARGUE IN AFTER-NOON.

And Come To Blows in the Evening. One Arrested and Hearing Today.

This morning Garrett Mercer, of Chester, went before Justice W. C. Johnson, of the Grant district, and made an affidavit against William Davis, charging him with assault and battery on George Arner Arner is

Yesterday the men had an argument, during which Davis accused Arner of insulting a lady relative. Arner denied the allegation and went his way. Last night Davis, who is a clerk in the restaurant of Elmer Good, went across the street to Arner's place of business and told Arner Le wanted to fight. Arner went out on the pavement, and Garrett Mercer, before the fight took place, took a 'black jack" from Davis, Davis struck Arner on the shoulder. Davis in return received some blows on the face and was not seen about the store today. The hearing was to take place in the office of the Chester livery stable this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Made It a Burlesque.

Franklin Fyles recalls some amusing first night experiences in his article on "The Theater and Its People" in The Ladies' Home Journal. One be relates is of Laura Doc, now dead: "She had the role of an Egyptian princess in Fresh, the American.' It was intended that she should be seriously and sectimentally impressive, while the late John T. Raymond, the star of the company, should be contrastingly comical as the lover. But the audience would not have it so. Nor was it anything in Miss Don's appearance, for she was beautiful, nor in her acting, for it was clever, that made the people laugh. It came of a miscalculation by the author. The quick witted woman, seeing that she could not control the audience, resolved to humor it. By an exaggeration of speech and manner she turned the part into burlesque, and it was always after acted in that

Mr. Fyles also tells that "in 'Cleopatra, as produced by the late Fanny Davenport, a general should have givof a battle which he had won. But he stood wordless, silent, stuck fast. 'You have come to tell me,' Miss Davenport said and then went on with the narrative which he should have spoken."

The Iceland Dinner.

In Iceland the native's dinner usually consists of dried fish and butter. The fish is ling or cod, which, when caught, is split open and then hung on the lines by the seashore to dry in the cold winds and hot sun. When thus preserved, they will keep for years. being as bard as the nether millstone. When wanted for dinner, the fish is well hammered by a stone mallet and then cut up into strips. In this state it is eaten, but it is said that it needs an Icelander's teeth to get through the meat. The butter is not spread on the fish, but the two are taken alternately, first a mouthful of tish, then a mouthful of butter. It may easily be supposed that the Icelander is thankful to have his jaws well greased after every mouthful of the tough morsel.

His Answer Was Heassuring. Mgr. Caiino, the simple bearted and ingenuous Frenchman, happened to be riding in a 'rain in the same compartment with a lady who was in constant fear of a smashup. At every sudden stop, every jar, every sound of the bell or whistle, she cried out: "Oh! Oh! Have we run off the track? Is it a collision? Are we going to be killed?"

Calino paid no attention, but remained wrapped in solemn silence. Presently the lady said to him:

"And you, sir, aren't you arraid of railroad accidents?" "Not 1. madame," answered Calino reassuringly. "It has been forestill that I am to die on the gullotina." The nervous woman west into by

COMES TO VOTE TODAY

Porto Ricon Aid Bill on Final Passage In House.

ALREADY THROUGH THE SENATE.

fillman Gave the Tariff Bill Advocates a Hot Sooring-Had Tilt With Foraker. Perkins Statement-Gallinger Defends Attitude of Tariffites.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The conferecne report on the Porto Ricon relief bill was presented and 1 p. m. today set as the time for voting on it.

The senate adopted the conference report on the relief bill by a vote of 35 to 15, practically a strict party expression. No Democrat voted for the report, but Mr. Stewart (Nev.) voted with the Republicans.

The time of discussion was consumed principally by Mr. Tillman (Dem., S. C.), who made a fierce attack upon the measure, as agreed upon in conference, and accused the Republican senators and the Republican party of indirection, hypocrisy and "dirty work." His speech was quite characteristic and was listened to with interest by his colleagues on the floor and the people in the galleries.

Mr. Tillman declared himself in favor of free trade with Porto Rico. In answer to a question he said in part:

If we are to continue to hold the Philippines, I'm in favor of free trade with those islands. Those who voted to bring into the country the islands with their cheap contract, peon and Malay isborers, were told of the results that would follow the ratification of the treaty. And you could not get the votes necessary to make the treaty law until you had bought some men to vote for it."

Referring to the recent speech of Mr. Bever-idge, Mr. Tillman declared it had been distributed among the Filipinos and had infused new life and energy into the revolution, because it indicated the hypocrisy and double dealing the United States had resorted to in the treatment of the Filipinos.

"The people," he shouted, "will teach you next November that trade and the flag and liberty and the constitution go together.

Further along, Mr. Tillman asked: "Is the president a free trader today, or is he following close behind the car driven by the men who want protection against the little island in the Caribbean sea?'

After waiting an instant, Mr. Tillman said: "Of course there is a dense silence in the chamber, as a response to my inquiry. The senator from Ohio (Foraker), too, is doubtful as to his position. I'd like to know if he is in favor of free trade with Porto Rico?"

Mr. Foraker replied that his position had been set forth fully in his speech on the Porto Ricon government bill.

"This slight and not burdensome tax," said Mr. Foraker, "was determined upon by the committee as a generous and merciful means of alleviating the sufferings of the people of Porto Rico P

Mr. Tillman replied that he had not read the report, that the senator from Ohio had changed

Further along, in connection with an editorial in the Chicago Times-Herald, he said: "The senator, I think, got out of the free trade boat as soon as Mr. Kohlsaat (the editor of The Times-Herald) got into it." Mr. Foraker: 'I will say to the senator and in the presence of the senate, that I have been much more comfortable in my position since I learned that Mr. Kohlsaat had declared for free trade." [Laughter.] Continuing, Mr. Tillman said: "I believe that Mr. McKinley is one of the most levable men in public life; but the trouble with him is that sometimes he hasn't the backbone to stand up against his party friends." Disclaiming any authority to speak for the President, Mr. Perkins (Cal.) said that the belief that the sugar trust had acquired the greater part of the sugar product of Porto Rico, and his desire to build up the beet sugar industry in the United States had induced the president, he (Perkins) believed, to favor a tariff, if it were true that he did favor it.

Mr. Gallinger pointed out that four-fifths of the products exported from Porto Rico consisted of coffee. Upon this the United States placed no tariff.

"We are proposing to treat Porto Rico better than we treat any territory of the United States. We collect internal revenue taxes in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Arizona, and every dollar of it goes into the United States treasury. We shall collect internal revenue taxes in Porto Rico, too, but every dollar so collected will be returned to the Porto Ricons and be used for their benefit."

"The trust which is suffering," said Mr. Gallinger at one point, "is a trust headed by the British vice consul at San Juan. That trust bought up the sugar under the full Dingley rates, and, if they can get it into this country free of duty, they will make the full 100 per cent of the tariff, but if we succeed in putting a tariff duty of 15 per cent of the Dingley rate on that sugar, the trust's profits will be cut down by that much and the people of Porto Rico will benefit to that extent." Mr. Spooner (Rep., Wis.) closed the debate with a forceful statement in opposition to Mr. Tillman's speech, in the course of which he took occasion sharply to criticise the South Osrolina senator for dragging the measure into politics. He had some colloquial tilts with Mr.

TOOK PORTO RICONS' TRADE.

Boston Editor So Declared-Gave Them Nothing In Return-Conditions In the Island.

NEW YORK, March 24.—James Jeffrey Roche, editor of the Boston Pilot, was a passenger aboard the United States Phillipston, Pa.

transport McClellan, which reached port from San Juan, Porto Rico, and Santiago de Cuba. Mr. Roche spent Topic For the Week Beginning three weeks on the island of Porto Rico, observing the people and their condition. From his experiences while there, Mr. Roche said that he was compelled to confess "the United States is in the yard." ungracious position of having deprived the islanders of their foreign trade and given them nothing in place of it."

He said in part: The island is over populated and, as the doctrine of Malthus has never taken root there, burricane last August and the want of work at present. The people are in a distressing state of suspense, which prevents all trade until the tariff question is settled. The military government is well administered for the most part, and under any conditions is likely to remain a necessity for some time to come.

The Porto Ricons are not fit for full independence. The result of Spain's misgovernment is apparent everywhere. It is the origin of all the evils in the island, ignorance, poverty and whatever lawlessness there may be. Porto Rico is no place for Americans to go with a view to occupation, manual or other-wise. INJUNCTIONS AGAINST LABOR.

Gompers and Darrow Ask House Committee For Preventive Legislation.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor; C. S. Darrow, of Chicago, and others identified with organized labor appeared before the judiciary committee of the house in advocacy of the bill restricting the issuance of injunctions in time of labor disturbances. Mr. Darrow cited the Debs case as typical, and related how a "blanket injunction" was issued against a large number of those connected with the American Railway union.

Mr. Gompers urged that the labor interests wanted to retain the time honored trial by jury. They insisted, he said, that there should be no injunction in a labor dispute, for labor had no remedy when the injunction was once is-

March 25 "The Glory of Obedience"-Text. Math. xxi. 28-32.

"I go," he said. but he never started. The purpose never took hold of him below his lips.

> In this parable Jesus unmasks the insincerity of the religious men of His times and country. They were extremely rigid in all the forms of religion. They prayed long and often and publicly so that the common people would see them. They gave money to the poor openly, fasted often, were regular in attendance upon the temple and synagogue services. They loved to be called very religious. Titles of respect pleased them. Official position in the Jewish church was eagerly sought. All the outside of piety they cultivated with extremest care.

> But they never regarded God with affection nor came to know themselves as lacking the first elements of genuine devotion. They blinded themselves. Deep, whole souled thirst for the right and search for the God of mercy and goodness never was known to them. They were actors, playing and imitating, with never a touch of the noble passions they sought to exhibit. They were called of God to special service in carrying divine truth and salvation to the world. Prophets had been sent them as never were sent any other people. They had a special mission to mankind. They professed great reverence for the God of their fathers and promised obedience continually and claimed peculiar sanctity as better than other men.

In reality they held the most vital characteristics of God in contempt, refused the call of Jehovah to be pure in heart and life and compassionate to men. Irreverence toward the truth and intolerance of opposition became marked features of their nature. They had a mission to the nations around them to bring them to God. They despised those not Jews and shut the doors of opportunity against them. Instead of being holy they became bateful and malignant. God said to them, "Go work in My vineyard." They said, "We go," but went not and hindered others going.

The important lesson for us in this parable lies in its application to present day affairs more than in a study of history of Jesus' times.

The call for work is as urgent now as ever. It comes to you. How do you answer? Weak compliance or promise of obedience under persuasion in revival meetings is not enough. Saying "l will be a Christian" because some one urges you to do so never will make you such. If you will go into God's vineyard, you need to carefully consider all it means. When you decide, you will need all the manliness and woman,iness in you. This is earnest work and not playing a part on a stage before folks. God calls. Will you go or are you only talking?

Wit and Wisdom.

To be able to make a witty after dinner speech or tell a funny story so that it sounds comical is not possible for the most of folks, and many wish to possess the rare ability. Far better is it to seek to know and tell useful truth rather than the merely humorous. Don't be deluded into the idea that the funny man is the one you should try to imitate. The best wit is wisdom, and the man who gets the ears of people worth having as listeners is not the one who has a reputation as a joker.

TO END MARTIAL LAW.

Congress Asked to Secure Removal of Troops In Idaho.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Senator Allen, in the senate, and Representative Lentz, in the house, introduced a joint resolution setting forth the continued maintenance of martial law in the Couer d'Alene mining country as improper, unnecessary and unlawful, and that the president be requested to withdraw the troops in Shoshone county unless the permit system be immediately revoked, the writ of habeas corpus restored to the citizens of said county and martial law declared to be at an end.

It was also further resolved that the sense and purpose of the resolution was in no wise to influence in maintaining and keeping troops within the limits of Shoshone county to aid the proper officers in the execution of the civil law.

The resolution is preceded by a long recital of the alleged improper conditions existing.

Lawyer Dill to Go to New Jersey to Secure the Incorporation of the New Company-Further Insures Pittsburg as World's Steel Center.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The organization of the new Carnegie Steel company is under way. Attorney James B. Dill, the eastern corporation lawyer, arrived in Pittsburg, prepared the papers in consultation with ex-Judge James H, ment. The program is to vote down all Reed, had them signed and the entire amendments if possible to do so, and capitalization was subscribed. Mr. Dill pass the bill as it came from the will likely return to Newark this evenin the articles of incorporation in New Jersey on Monday. The amalgamated company will still further insure the supremacy of Ettsburg as the iron and sleel center of the world.

The stock capital of the new company will be $160,000,000 and bonds, bearing 5 per cent interest, will be issued to the cus committee admitted that no great same amount. This will make the aggregate capital $320,000,000. The bonds will represent the conservative book determination to press for an early vote, value of the concerns incorporated, as figured out by Andrew Carnegie, H. C. Frick, Henry Phipps and other leaders in the combination movement. The capital stock and bonds together will represent the actual value of the property, or its earning power, according to the best estimates of the Carnegie partners, who have been figuring on the matter for weeks.

The interest on the bonds will only require the payment annually of a little more than $8,000,000, but it is believed that the company's earnings will never in the future go this low.

The Carnegie Steel company, limited which carries with it the control of the PORTO RICONS STARVE; various railroads, docks, iron ore mining property and steamship lines, will be taken into the new Carnegie company at a valuation of $250,000,000

It was said that no water will be allowed in the company, and it is generally believed by bankers that the estimates are conservative, taking into account the great earning power of the property. The book value will be guaranteed, and will naturally be the base value of the company to be taken in.
Only one kind of stock will be issued.

The H. O. Frick Coke company will be taken into the amalgamation at a value of about $75,000,000. About $35,-000,000 will be paid to the coke shareholders in the bonds of the new Carnegic company, and a similar amount will be taken in stock. It is probable that the odd $5,000,000 will be placed in the new company treasury.

Partners in the Carnegie and Frick companies were summoned from all parts of the country to affix their signatures to the transfer of their stock to the new corporation and to subscribe to the capital of the new company. All the shares and bonds that were apportioned to each stockholder in the two companies were taken readily, and last evening Mr. Dill had the entire capital subscribed for.

Bishop Fowler Points Out the Desire of Methodism-Week of Prayer Next Week.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 24.—Bishop Charles H. Fowler, who has returned from the Philadelphia conference to the Episcopal residence in this city, gave expression of his views, which, in substance, follow:

The week of fasting, or abstinence, or prayer of the Methodist Episcopal church will extend from March 25 to April 1, inclusive. Each person makes his own interpretation of abstinence. In reviewing our work over the whole world, we found we have declined a little in numbers, perhaps one-half of 1 per cent. Mumbers are not the most important element in church life, but rather spiritual quality; then comes quantity; the more the better, provided we cun digest the numbers.

Every fifth grave in the south where reposes a blue uniform contains a communicant from a Methodist Episcopai church. So we must plant the heathen continents with Methodist graves. This week will steady our ranks and stiffen our staying power and keep the coming generation from irreparable blunders. We want at least 2,000,000 converts in the next two years.

HOUSE BILL UNAMENDED.

Republican Tariff Senators Authorized Foraker to Try to Secure Passage In Senate.

Washington, March 24.-The Republican caucus committee of the senate authorized Senator Foraker in definite terms to propose the separation of the tariff feature from the Porto Ricon governmental bill and to attempt to pass the house tariff bill without amendhouse without any changes whatever.

The element in the Republican ranks the question should come up.

When the senate adjourned, several of the members of the Republican cauprogress had been made. They said there would be no withdrawal from the and to put the house bill throughout without amendment. Other members, however, expressed the opinion that the bill might yet be modified so as to meet the objections of the free trade Lapublicans of the senate. They admitted that the represer atives of the house had told them there was great danger in altering the house measure in any respect.

One member of the committee stated that it was the purpose of the committee to ask every day that a time be set for taking a vote, thus placing the responsibility for any delay that might occur upon the free traders.

RIOTS THREATENED.

Which Will Take Years to Overcome.

Ponce, Porto Rico, March 24.-The situation here is now more serious than it has been at any time before since the terrible hurricane. In many places the poor are starving. The price of rice, beans and codfish has increased from 50 to 100 per cent.

Demonstrations against the delay of the United States government in settling open questions have recently been held at Mayaguez, Yauco, Arecibo, Aguadilla, Fijardo, Juana Diaz, Guayple are unable to understand the delay and they condemn all Americans indiscriminately. Bad feeling is arising which it will take years to overcome.

Even riots are threatened. Trouble is almost inevitable unless the tension is relieved. Even wealthy land owners can not command ready cash, and many Americans are penniless, being glad to work for their board.

He stated that while he did not repudiate the action the attorney general took in pleading that the writ was suspended, that officer acted on his own responsibility on law pleadings. The governor said his attitude as to the military was that of commander-in-chief of the military forces in the state.

When asked how much longer he intended to continue the military control he said it would be continued until there was fall assurance that order was restored and all rights secured from vio-

London, March 24.—4:15 a. m.—Lord Roberts' main army continues vaiting at Bloemfontein. The sentime tal interest in the fate of Mafeking has in-tensified with Colonel Plumer's forced retirement to Crocedils Pools, where he

Lord Methuen is skirmishing with the Boers at Warrenton, 167 miles away. Although seeming in force sufficient to do pretty much as he likes, he has not advanced these five days.

General French's cavalry and mounted infantry, according to a rumor, are fighting somewhere east of Bloemfontein. Commandant Oliver's commando, with 2,000 wagons, are reported on the Basutoland frontier, toiling northward toward Kroonstadt, via Ladybrand. Incident of Powers' Hearing, at Frankfort, Ky .- Raid of Mountaineers

Guarded Against.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 24.- The preliminary examination of Secre ary of State Caleb Powers, charged with abetting the assassination of William Goebel, began before Judge Moore, in this city. The court house was guarded, indeputy sheriffs, armed with Winchester rifles, to prevent possible interference from "mountaineers" who were reported on their way to Frankfort. The mountaineers failed to appear. The witnesses included Warden Eph Lillard, Detective Dee Armstrong, Sheriff Bosworth, of Fayette county, who arrested Secretary Powers and Captain John Davis, and Silas Jones, who is now under bends, charged with complicity in the murder. The testimony tended to show that the shots came from the section of the executive building in which Secretary Powers' office is located, although no one swore that the shots were from the secretary's office. The strongest evidence, perhaps, was given by Silas Jones, who walked into Gevernor Taylor's ante room when the shots were

There he saw Captain Davis and Governor Taylor, among others.

There was considerable excitement, the governor came to the door and wanted to know who was shot.

"Did you see any one try to open Caleb Powers' door?" asked Attorney Polsgrove. "Yes, I saw a man with sandy whiskers trying to open the door. He struck it with a hatchet," replied Mr. Jones. Jones said there was much noise, but he could not say that he heard any from Secretary Powers' office. On cross-examination Jones said he saw Powers leave his office during the morning for Louisville. This was previous to the shooting. No evidence was adduced tending to show that the defendant was implicated in any conspiracy, but in one of the frequent wordy disputes between the attorneys for the defense and the commonwealth, the fact was brought out that F. Wharton Golden, who is said to have made a confession, will be put on the wits stand before the hearing er During Captain Hawn's testimony Governor Brown made the point that a man can not be convicted as an aider of a crime unless some principal is convicted of the crime. As the actual murderer of Goebel has not yet been named, the point possibly involved the liberty of Secretary Powers. Judge Moore ruled against the defense. Prosecuting Attorney Polsgrove said that sufficient evidence had already been heard to warrant holding Powers, but that the case would be much stronger before he was through. On the other hand former Governor Brown, for the defense, expressed himself as well pleased with the situation, regarding the evidence that far as decidedly weak.

FIRST WEEK OF NEW LAW.

Satisfactory to Treasury and Banks-Carnegle-Frick Settlement Helps Iron.

New York, March 24.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today, said in part:

In its first week of operation, the new monetary bill has given satisfaction at the treasury and to banks. Applications for new 2 per cents have exceeded $106,000,000, and the net increase in bank circulation is already over $10,000,-000. As the rate at which new circulation can be issued is limited, except for banks which gave orders in advance of the bill, and the issues at first are largely for the increase of notes to the par value of bonds deposited, little can yet be inferred regarding the other increase, though applications indicate that it will be large for interior banks. The release of millions employed in preparation for action under the new measure has caused in bank returns considerable changes, which are nominal, rather than real, and the money markets are undisturbed. The reported settlement of the Carnegie-Frick controversy is of t'as greatest importance to the iron and seel industry. A fight between such forces would in the end have affected prices and values beyond calculation, while the combination of interests now said to be agreed upon may prove revolu-tionary in its influence. Whether mar-kets will be immediately affected is not clear. As yet the tendency toward reaction of prices continues, though in the Pittsburg region Bessemer and basic pig are strong, But eastern Bes semer and Grey forge and southern pig are sold there at prices below those governing in larger transactions, and it is corn closed %c improved and May oats only the demand for steel-making iron a shade up. Provisions were strong and which appears to exceed the supply. Eastern markets are weaker, with reduction of $1 per ton at Philadelphia in some grades. Finished products are generally unchanged, though sheets rise at Chicago with the coming combination, while plates sink lower at Pittsburg and to the lowest point since April

5, 1899, at Philadelphia. shade more strength than those of last | quitoes. They settled on every particle month, and considerable American pur- of exposed flesh, and the thousands chases of some grades indicate true position of the prices asked here. Yet the markets here are called stronger in tone, although of the sales reported much the greater part were at concessions, and manufacturers are doing very little. Sales at the three chief markets were ence that far as decidedly weak.

An incident occurred that showed the feeling 500 were domestic. The state of the goods market does not encourage manufacturers to pay the prices now asked. There is not only little ground to expect an advance in prices, but in other than the leading grades some concessions are frequently made to secure transactions, and the business is still disappointingly restricted.

The advance in wheat which followed statements of the quantity in farmers' hands has not been maintained, and the decline the past week has been 13/8 cents, corn yielding also about 1/2 cent.

Failures for the week were 183 in the United States, against 200 last year, and 27 in Canada, against 240 last year.

Stocks Tried to Stand Up, But Heavy Selling Finally Forced Some Down. Other Features.

NEW YORK, March 24.-Prices of stocks made continual but unavailing efforts to stand up under the weight of heavy sales to realize profits, Friday, but in the majority of instances the last prices are below those of Thursday night. The whole list was at one time higher than Thursday night and several stocks or groups of stocks made a voice." show of aggressive strength. But this Baltimore and Onto preserved, winen was pushed up at one time nearly three points above Thursday night. While the preferred was thus rising heavy selling continued in the common stock.

The local traction stocks showed some positive weakness and were something of a drag on the market, as was Sugar. The local tractions were sold on renewed apprehension that a heavy tax would be levied under the new franchise tax law. A sudden spurt to 1643/4 by Metropolitan, after having sold at 160 a few minutes before. caused rallies in this group and had a steadying effect on the whole market, which was tending downwards up to that time. The weakness in Sugar was due to the explicit announcement that recent negotiations for a compromise of the trade war had been abandoned. The iron and steel stocks continued dull and rather heavy on account of the machinists' strike.

Money continued in good supply up to the close. The sub-treasury has commenced to disburse the premium on government bonds deposited for conversion into the new 2s, and as a consequence the losses by the banks for the week on sub-treasury operations are reduced to $1,187,000, and this is almost offset by receipts of gold from Canada and other points. The shipments to the interior are almost exactly offset by the receipts.

The bond market was less active than Thursday and yielded at some points in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par the fight is no small part of the baltle of ballots. All the central committee candidates are working hard for themselves, and it is expected there will be some surprises when the votes are counted this evening. This fight was made possible by the printing of the names on the ballots, something that was never done before in this city, and the party who now becomes a member of the committee must have the votes to get the office.

THE BRIDGe

George Moore, of Hookstown, Well Known Here, Thrown Off His Horse This Morning.

SHIED AT A STREET CAR

Moore Was Fatally Injured In Attempting to Remount After Alighting.

HIS SON SAW THE ACCIDENT.

This morning George Moore, a prominent and well to do farmer of near Hookstown, started for this city for the purpose of doing some shopping. Owing to the exceedingly bad condition of the roads Mr. Moore decided to come on horseback and arrived in Chester shortly after 12 o'clock. The horse he rode was a young animal, and, like nearly all country horses, didn't like the street cars. Just as Mr. Moore started across the bridge he heard a street car coming. He got off, and, catching the horse by the bridle, he held it until after the car had passed and then attempted to get on again. In some way he got the reins mixed up and the horse threw him. He alighted on his head, and never spoke after he fell. He was picked up and carried to Good's restaurant and Dr. Hobbs summoned, When the physician arrived Moore was beyond human aid and he expired a short time after. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

Moore was one of the best known farmers about Hookstown. He owned a farm of about 200 acres. He is the father of three children, and one of his sons was with him when the fatal accident occurred. After Moore had expired the son left for Hookstown, where he told his mother of his father's sad end.

The remains will be taken to Hookstown either this evening or tomorrow morning.

Will Be Different.

The members of the graduating class this year intend, if possible, to have a different program at the annual commencement exercises, rather than have the old idea of having each graduate present an essay or an oration. They will have an interesting program.

The Annual Cleaning.

The annual cleaning up in the city will begin next week, and Street Commissioner Bryan served notice on the property owners today. An effort will be made to have the cleaning as thorough as possible this year.

Will Not Be Necessary.

If the present warm weather continues it will not be necessary to wash the streets any more this year, as the street department can sweep the streets and keep them clean.

CONDITION OF TRADE.

The Crockery Business Continues To Be Excellent And the Potteries Are Busy.

· With the advance of the season there is more effort being made in the way of securing orders, and both manufacturers and jobbers are actively engaged in this direction. The trade, either wholesale or retail, are not disposed to purchase very freely, but a conservative policy, which seeks to avoid the accumulation of goods, is being very generally pursued. Inasmuch, however, as there is a fairly large consumption the current needs of dealers require a steady replenishment of their stocks and so their demands on first hands, if not heavy individually, are frequent. On some lines potteries are behind with their orders and none of them is heavily stocked. The general outlook of trade continues excellent, labor is well employed and at higher wages than have been current heretofore recently, and prosperity prevails throughout the country without any early prospect of a cessation of these favorable conditions. The factories are all engaged to full capacity and the output and shipments larger than at any previous time.-China, Glass and Lamps.

DEMOCRATS PUSHING THE CASE

Not Yet Decided Whether the Hearings Will Be Held In Secret or Public Session.

CONGRESSMEN TALK TO MACRUM

WASHINGTON, March 24 .- [Special]-Former Consul Macrum is at the capitol, having come on from his home in response to a telegram from Representative Wheeler, of Kentucky, bidding him to appear before the house committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Wheeler arranged to see Chairman Hitt, of the foreign affairs committee, and have the evidence of Mr. Macrum taken early next week. Mr. Wheeler says he will urge that the inquiry take place before the full commit-

A telegram to the Pittsburg Dispatch

Just now the interest in the Macram matter centers in the question whether the investigation by the Foreign Affairs committee or the sub committee acting for it shall be a public or a secret one. Chairman Hitt's first idea was that, inasmuch as the matter contains relations with a foreign power, it should be secret, but there was no decision on that point.

The Democrats, who are intent on making political capital out of the matter have set up such a howl against the proposition to hear the former consul in secret that Macrum, who arrived here this afternoon, has been lost sight of. Chairman Hitt said tonight that he would consuit members of the committee in time, so that there will be no delay in the hearing, which will begin Monday.

Macrom has, since his arrival here, placed himself in charge of Representative Wheeler, who offered the resolution to investigate, and Berry, both of Kentucky and both Democrats.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For Week Deginning March 25-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.-The glory of obedience.-Math. xxi, 28

The topic is illustrated by the parable of the two sons, in which Christ leads the fault finding Jews to condema themselves and pay a tribute to the obedience of the gentiles.

THE PARABLE.

"A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' and he went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father?"

THE INTERPRETATION.

The father is God. The first son represents the gentiles, the second the Jews. The vineyard is the church. The gentiles represent the unregenerate sinner, who makes no pretension, at the first call, to serve God; but, then, after thought and consideration, he repents and does serve him. The Jews, on the other hand, pretended to serve God, but were hypocritical in their pretenses. They said, "I go, sir," but went not. Of the two classes, the former, of course, came nearer to doing the will of God.

THE APPLICATION.

Though Christ spoke this parable for the benefit of the chief priests and elders who were trying to entrap Him, yet it has a universal application. The representatives of these two types of people have been in the world in all ages and are here today. The first makes no pretension of serving God and often boasts of the fact that they are not hypocrities at least, but this does not relieve them of the sin of disobedience. The man who shamelessly and boastfully proclaims his disobedience does not thereby relieve himself of it. It is not the confession of the boaster, but the confession of the penitent, that brings forgiveness and pardon. It was only when this son repented and obeyed his father that he was worthy of praise, and, therefore, how much better it would have been had he willingly obeyed from the first call. And what a risk be ran in disobeying for a time! The opportunity to repent and to do his father's will might never have come to him again. It is only by comparison with the other class that glory is attached to his obedience. The noblest glory shines round our obedience when at the first command, "Go work," we answer, "I go, sir," and then go.

The second class represents those whose religion is only a hypocritical pretense. They profess to be doing God's will while they are not doing it. They say, "I go," and go not. They have the form of godliness, but not the power. They have a name to live, but are dead. Let us guard ourselves against the error of this class. If we nave said, "I go," let us go; let us willingly obey, at any cost or sacrifice, for if we do not obey God we shall come short of the glory of God. "Obedience is better than sacrifice," for without obedience no sacrifice is acceptable unto God.

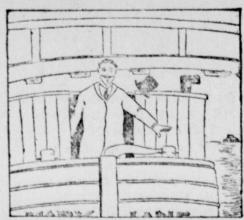

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a Bible class meeting. Let the leader have a Bible in his hand as he opens the topic, passing it to another when he closes, as a signal for him to take part, and he to another, until all have taken part. Bible Readings .- Ex. xix, 5, 6; xxiii

20-22; Lev. xxvi, 1-7; Deut. xxviii 1-11; I Sam. xv, 22; Isa. i, 18-20; Jer. vii, 23; xxvi, 12, 13; xxxviii, 17-20 Acts v. 29; Rom. v. 19; Phil. ii, 5-12; Heb. xi, 8-10; Rev. xxii, 14.

The Rush of Modern Times. The dire effect of the present driv ing rate at which life is forced along is beginning to show itself in two important directions. First, while the average of life is longer because of the improved condition of child life, the life of men and women, but especially men, is growing shorter. The pressure to go fast is making men old before their time and is laying many of them in the grave. Good John Woolman, the American Quaker of last century. used to say that God never meant men to toll and moil as they generally do for a living, and, somehow, we shall have to be brought to the conclusion 'that man shall not live by bread alone. but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." This rush all day long is lot life. Second. with this rapidity of pace we are told that originality is becoming rarer every year and "a casual type of mind" is being take no other.

"Look out!" cried the captain, as the canal-boat was passing under a low bridge. A Frenchman immediately put his head out of the cabin window to look, and got a severe blow. Rubbing his head ruefully, he cried: "Why do these Yankees call look out when they mean look in? Look out for your health means look in. For the secret of health is within you. Germs are in the air you breathe and in the water you drink, but if your blood is pure and your stomach sound the germs can find no permanent lodgement.

To keep the blood and stomach in sound health or to re-establish them in a healthy condition when they are diseased, no medicine is so effective as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. purifies the blood, cleanses the system of waste and poisonous substances, increases the activity of the blood making glands, and invigorates the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I can say honestly and candidly that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin, and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars. and sweining in my knees and feet so that i could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars, paying doctors' bills, but received no benefit. A year or two ago I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

BRUTAL PRIZE FIGHT.

Erne Knocked From It's Socket One of Gans' Eyes-Thus Won Bout, In New York.

NEW YORK, March 24 .- Frank Erne, of Buffalo, successfully defended his title of lightweight champion of the world against Joe Gans, colored, of Baltimore, at the Broadway Athletic club. Erne did most of the heavy fighting, displaying better judgment and more skill than his opponent.

Gans received his punishment gamely until the twelfth round, when his less eye was started from its socket by a terrific right hand swing from the Buffalo boy. Gans was helpless and there was no alternative for the referee but te award the decision to Erne.

Protestantism in Austria.

From official reports of Protestant pastors in Austria for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1899, we learn that 1,876 men, 912 women and 536 children, or 3,275 in all, during that time left the Catholic church to become Protestants. In previous years the average accessions from all sources for the same period to Protestant churches were only 656. Among the converts is Alois Walch, formerly priest of the Servite order.-Exchange.

COLUMBUS CORRESPONDENT OF CLEVELAND LEADER

Sizes Up the Congressional Contest In This District-All Eyes On Columbiana,

The following is a special from Columbus to the Cleveland Leader:

Columbiana county is the key to the Eighteenth district congressional nomination. This is admitted by a number of prominent Republicans from the district who are here today, informer Lieutenant Covernor

Asa W. Jones and Julius Whiting, of Canton. Accordingly there is general interest in the Columbiana county primaries, which occur today.

Should Tayler be defeated in his own county, Stark, 75 per cent of which is for him, would desert him for Baker. If Tayler wins at home, he will have all of Stark and be renominated without further trouble. Accordingly, all eyes in the Eighteenth district are on Columbiana.

The Mahoning county Republicans have shrewdly agreed to wait until Stark and Columbiana counties have chosen their delegates, and then Mahoning is to meet in convention and decide what to do. If either Tayler or Baker has enough votes to nominate without Mahoning, the convention at Youngstown will endorse the victor. If not, Mahoning will unite in support of a local candidate. Whether this candidate be Judge James P. Kennedy, Senator Wirt, or former Lieutenant Governor Asa W. Jones is immaterial. The point is that Mahoning will get together. Governor Jones is not a candidate in the active sense, and the probabilities are that Judge Kennedy will be settled upon. However, it is too early to allow Governor Jones to take himself out of the race, though he seems to be desirous of so doing.

The Grenade Throwers.

The granadiers, the senior of British regiments which compose the brigade of guards, got its name from the fact that toward the end of the eighteenth century the men were armed with hand grenades to throw among the enemy. They had to be in the front of the fighting line; hence they gained a reputation for bravery and the name of the "grenadiers." The badge of the regiment is still a hand grenade spouting flames, though that deadly engine of war has long since been superseded -Scottish-American.

Dr. Lee's Term as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Will Expire Soon.

HOT MAY RETURN

To Preach a Farewell Sermon manager of the Chester Grocery com-Although Urged to Do So.

A LARGE LIST OF APPLICANTS.

The resignation of Dr. John Lloyd Lee as pastor of the First Presbyterian church goes into effect one week from tomorrow, and it is stated that he will not return here to preach a farewell sermon, although he has been urged to do so by his very many warm friends in the congregation. Whether the statement is true or not is not known, although Dr. Lee said goodbye to the session when he left the city.

It has not been decided just whenthe congregation will vote on a pastor to fill the pulpit, as there is still several applicants to be heard before the vote is taken. The congregation will probably be without a pastor for some time yet, as there is a desire on the role of an Egyptian princess in the part of all to give all the applicants a chance to be heard. The congregation was without a pastor for several months after Dr. Marshall resigned, and it is probable no pastor will be selected before fall.

How Justice Was Tempered.

Tact in the management of your judge is a great thing. A certain well known British treasury counsel was driving over Blackfriars bridge one day on his way to Surrey sessions. Noticing Sir Peter Edlin trudging along in the mud and rain, he instantly stopped his hansom and offered the judge a "lift." It was accepted, and the pair proceeded to Newington in great amity. Arriving, the learned counsel hurried in, as he had an important application to make on the sitting of the court. To his horror and surprise, the of a battle which he had won. But he said application was curtly refused. He was dumfounded at the sudden have come to tell me, Miss Davenport change in the demeanor of the judge until the usher in a husky whisper said:

"Do you know what you've done?" "No! What is it?"

"Why, you ran in and left the judge to pay for your cab."

To Those Who Hesitate.

In every man's life there come moments when he is called to decide whether to go forward or to stand still. Timidity says. "Hesitate." Prudence says: "Be not too hasty. Take aim. Belf interest says: "You may hurt yourself. You may run risks. You may infure your prospects of worldly success." But conscience says: "The hour has come. Go and do your duty." And everything generous and noble in the heart responds and says, "Amen."-Christian Uplook.

CHESTER MEN ARGUE IN AFTER-

And Come To Blows in the Evening. One Arrested and Hearing Today.

This morning Garrett Mercer, of Chester, went before Justice W. C. Johnson, of the Grant district, and made an affidavit against William Davis, charging him with assault and battery on George Arner Arner is

Yesterday the men had an argument, during which Davis accused Arner of insulting a lady relative. Arner denied the allegation and went his way. Last night Davis, who is a clerk in the restaurant of Elmer Good. went across the street to Arner's place of business and told Arner Le wanted to fight. Arner went out on the pavement, and Garrett Mercer, before the fight took place, took a 'black jack" from Davis, Davis struck Arner on the shoulder. Davis in return received some blows on the face and was not seen about the store today. The hearing was to take place in the office of the Chester livery stable this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Made It a Burlesque.

Franklin Fyles recalls some amusing first night experiences in his article on The Theater and Its People" in The Ladies' Home Journal. One be relates is of Laura Doc, now dead: "She had 'Fresh, the American.' It was intended that she should be seriously and sectimentally impressive, while the late John T. Raymond, the star of the company, should be contrastingly comical as the lover. But the audience would not have it so. Nor was it anything in Miss Don's appearance, for she was beautiful, nor in her acting, for it was clever, that made the people laugh. It came of a miscalculation by the author. The quick witted woman, seeing that she could not control the audience, resolved to humor it. By an exaggeration of speech and manner she turned the part into burlesque. and it was always after acted in that way."

Mr. Fyles also tells that "in 'Cleopatra, as produced by the late Fanny Davenport, a general should have given to his queen an impetuous account stood wordless, silent, stuck fast. 'You tive which he should have spoken."

The Iceland Dinner.

In Iceland the native's dinner usual ly consists of dried fish and butter. The fish is ling or cod, which, when caught, is split open and then hung on the lines by the seashore to dry in the cold winds and hot sun. When thus preserved, they will keep for years, being as bard as the nether millstone. When wanted for dinner, the fish is then cut up into strips. In this state it is eaten, but it is said that it needs an Icelander's teeth to get through the meat. The butter is not spread on the fish, but the two are taken alternately, first a mouthful of fish, then a monthful of butter. It may easily be supposed that the Icelander is thankful to have his jaws well greased after every mouthful of the tough morsel.

His Answer Was Beassoring. Mgr. Calino, the simple hearted and ingenuous Frenchman, happened to be riding in a 'rain in the same compartment with a lady who was in constant fear of a smashup.

At every sudden stop, every jar, every sound of the bell or whistle, she cried out:

"Oh! Oh! Have we run off the track? Is it a collision? Are we going to be killed?"

Calino paid no attention, but remained wrapped in solemn silence. Pres ently the lady said to him: "And you, sir, aren't you arraid of railroad accidents?"

"Not 1. madame," answered Calino reassuringly. "It has been foretell that I am to die on the guillotine."

The nervous woman went into by terics and had to be removed from the train at the next station -

The White House Mail Box.

'An amusing thing that we frequent ly see at the White House," said one of the attaches there, "is the mailing of letters in the White House letter box by visitors to the city. All visitors to Washington go to the executive mansion, and many of them notice the letter box in the vestibule just before entering the east room. Some of them decide to mail letters there, believing that these letters will contain the stamp of the White House. Of course it would be a great thing for a distan. relative to receive a letter postmarked at the White House.

"The other day an intelligent looking woman, accompanied by several grown daughters, asked me to lend her a pencil. I heard her say, 'Won't it be love ly to mail them a letter from here and let them see that we've been to the president's home? She proceeded to write for some time, secured an envel ope, addressed it and then proudly dropped the epistle in our letter box. She went off with a radiant face. She was sure that all her neighbors and friends for miles around would hear of that letter mailed from the White House, and she would be besieged with inquiries on ber return. She'll learn her mistake. The letter box here does not differ in any way from those on the streets." Washington Star.

COMES TO VOTE TODAY

Porto Ricon Aid Bill on Final. Passage In House.

ALREADY THROUGH THE SENATE.

fillman Gave the Tariff Bill Advocates a Hot Sooring-Had Tilt With Foraker. Perkins Statement-Gallinger Defends Attitude of Tariffites.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-The conferecne report on the Porto Ricon relief bill was presented and 1 p. m. today set as the time for voting on it.

The senate adopted the conference report on the relief bill by a vote of 35 to 15, practically a strict party expression. No Democrat voted for the report, but Mr. Stewart (Nev.) voted with the Republicans.

The time of discussion was consumed principally by Mr. Tillman (Dem., S. C.), who made a flerce attack upon the measure, as agreed upon in conference, and accused the Republican senators and the Republican party of indirection, hypocrisy and "dirty work." His speech was quite characteristic and was listened to with interest by his colleagues on the floor and the people in the galleries.

Mr. Tillman declared himself in favor of free trade with Porto Rico. In answer to a question he said in part:

If we are to continue to hold the Philippines, I'm in favor of free trade with those islands. Those who voted to bring into the country the islands, with their cheap contract, peon and Malay laborers, were told of the results that would follow the ratification of the treaty. And you could not get the votes necessary to make the treaty law until you had bought some men to vote for it."

Referring to the recent speech of Mr. Beveridge, Mr. Tillman declared it had been distributed among the Filipinos and had infused new life and energy into the revolution, because it indicated the hypocrisy and double dealing the United States had resorted to in the treatment of the Filipinos.

"The people," he shouted, "will teach you next November that trade and the flag and liberty and the constitution go together.'

Further along, Mr. Tillman asked: "Is the president a free trader today, or is he following close behind the car driven by the men who want protection against the little island in the Caribbean sea?"

After waiting an instant, Mr. Tillman said: "Of course there is a dense silence in the chamber, as a response to my inquiry. The senator from Ohio (Foraker), too, is doubtful as to his position. I'd like to know if he is in favor of free trade with Porto Rico?"

Mr. Foraker replied that his position had been set forth fully in his speech on the Porto Ricon government bill.

"This slight and not burdensome tax," said Mr, Foraker, "was determined upon by the committee as a generous and merciful means of alleviating the sufferings of the people of

Mr. Tillman replied that he had not read the report, that the senator from Ohio had changed

Further along, in connection with an edi-torial in the Chicago Times-Herald, he said: "The senator, I think, got out of the free trade boat as soon as Mr. Kohlsaat (the editor of The Times-Herald) got into it." Mr. Foraker: "I will say to the senator and in the presence of the senate, that I have been much more comfortable in my position since learned that Mr. Kohisaat had declared for free trade." [Laughter.] Continuing, Mr. Tillman said: "I believe that Mr. McKinley is one of the most levable men in public life; but the trouble with him is that sometimes he hasn't the backbone to stand up against his party friends."

Disclaiming any authority to speak for the President, Mr. Perkins (Cal.) said that the belief that the sugar trust had acquired the greater part of the sugar product of Porto Rico, and his desire to build up the beet sugar industry in the United States had induced the president, he (Perkins) believed, to favor a tariff, if it were true that he did favor it.

Mr. Gallinger pointed out that four-fifths of the products exported from Porto Rico consisted of coffee. Upon this the United States placed no tariff.

We are proposing to treat Porto Rico better than we treat any territory of the United States. We collect internal revenue taxes in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Arizona, and every dollar of it goes into the United States treasury. We shall collect internal revenue taxes in Porto Rico, too, but every dollar so collected will be returned to the Porto Ricons and be used for their benefit."

"The trust which is suffering," said Mr. Gal linger at one point, "is a trust headed by the British vice consul at San Juan. That trust bought up the sugar under the full Dingley rates, and, if they can get it into this country free of duty, they will make the full 100 per cent of the tariff, but if we succeed in putting a tariff duty of 15 per cent of the Dingley rate on that sugar, the trust's profits will be cut down by that much and the people of Porto Rico will benefit to that extent."

Mr. Spooner (Rep., Wis.) closed the debate with a forceful statement in opposition to Mr. Tillman's speech, in the course of which he took occasion sharply to criticise the South Carolina senator for dragging the measure into politics. He had some colloquial tilts with Mr.

TOOK PORTO RICONS' TRADE.

Boston Editor So Declared-Gave Them Nothing In Return-Conditions

In the Island. NEW YORK, March 24.—James Jeffrey passenger aboard the United States Phillipston, Pa.

transport McClellan, which reached port from San Juan, Porto Rico, and three weeks on the island of Porto Rico, observing the people and their condition. From his experiences while there, Mr. Roche said that he was compelled to confess "the United States is in the yard." ungracious position of having deprived the islanders of their foreign trade and given them nothing in place of it."

He said in part: The island is over populated and, as the doctrine of Malthus has never taken root there. further crowding is inevitable. There is a great deal of poverty there, due to the results of the burricane last August and the want of work at present. The people are in a distressing state of suspense, which prevents all trade until the tariff question is settled.

The military government is well administered for the most part, and under any conditime to come.

The Porto Ricons are not fit for full independence. The result of Spain's misgov-ernment is apparent everywhere. It is the origin of all the evils in the island, ignorance, poverty and whatever lawlessness there may be. Porto Rico is no place for Americans to go with a view to occupation, manual or otherwise. Labor is too cheap. Unless all testimony be untrue, it is no place either for our "smarter" politicians, for the native can beat them in every phase of the game.

Gompers and Darrow Ask House Committee For Preventive Legislation.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor; C. S. Darrow, of Chicago, and others identified with organized labor appeared before the judiciary committee of the house in advocacy of the bill restricting the issuance of injunctions in time of labor disturbances. Mr. Darrow cited the Debs case as typical, and related how a "blanket injunction" was issued against a large number of those connected with the American Railway union.

Mr. Gompers urged that the labor interests wanted to retain the time honored trial by jury. They insisted, he said, that there should be no injunction in a labor dispute, for labor had no remedy when the injunction was once is-

"Son, go to work today in my vine-

The first son refused. Afterward, as he thought over the matter, he went. It was tardy obedience, but was much better than utter neglect or refusal. The other son said, "I go, sir," but got no farther. Perhaps he intended to go. Possibly he was one of those easy people who can never say "No," always wishing to please every one, profuse in professions of friendship and fidelity. but with no stamina. "I go," he said. tions is likely to remain a necessity for some but he never started. The purpose never took hold of him below his lips.

> In this parable Jesus unmasks the insincerity of the religious men of His times and country. They were extremely rigid in all the forms of religion. They prayed long and often and publicly so that the common people would see them. They gave money to the poor openly, fasted often, were regular in attendance upon the temple and synagogue services. They loved to be called very religious. Titles of respect pleased them. Official position in the Jewish church was eagerly sought. All the outside of piety they cultivated with extremest care.

But they never regarded God with affection nor came to know themselves Deep, whole souled thirst for the right and search for the God of mercy and Judge MacMath, in 1865, was made goodness never was known to them. ing, with never a touch of the noble passions they sought to exhibit. They were called of God to special service in carrying divine truth and salvation to the world. Prophets had been sent them as never were sent any other people. They had a special mission to mankind. They professed great reverence for the God of their fathers and promised obedience continually and claimed peculiar sanctity as better than other men.

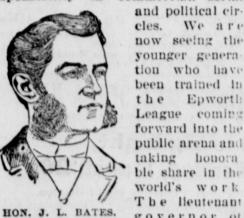

> In reality they held the most vital characteristics of God in contempt, refused the call of Jehovah to be pure in heart and life and compassionate to men. Irreverence toward the truth and intolerance of opposition became marked features of their nature. They had a mission to the nations around them to bring them to God. They despised those not Jews and shut the doors of opportunity against them. Instead of being holy they became bateful and malignant. God said to them, "Go work in My vineyard." They said. "We go," but went not and hindered others going.

> The important lesson for us in this parable lies in its application to present day affairs more than in a study of history of Jesus' times.

The call for work is as urgent now as ver. It comes to you. How do you answer? Weak compliance or promise of obedience under persuasion in revival meetings is not enough. Saying "l will be a Christian" because some one urges you to do so never will make you such. If you will go into God's vineyard, you need to carefully consider all it means. When you decide, you will need all the manliness and woman.iness in you. This is earnest work and not playing a part on a stage before folks. God calls. Will you go or are you only talking?

Wit and Wisdom.

To be able to make a witty after dinner speech or tell a funny story so that it sounds comical is not possible for the most of folks, and many wish to possess the rare ability. Far better is it to seek to know and tell useful truth rather than the merely humorous. Don't be deluded into the idea that the funny man is the one you should try to imitate. The best wit is wisdom, and the man who gets the ears of people worth having as listeners is not the one who has a reputation as a joker.

The Philippines already have a Methodist Episcopal church in Manila, and Bishop Thoburn expects soon to have a district in the islands and occupy strategic points as opportunity opens.

TO END MARTIAL LAW.

Congress Asked to Secure Removal of Troops In Idaho.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Senator Allen, in the senate, and Representative Lentz, in the house, introduced a joint resolution setting forth the continued maintenance of martial law in the Couer d'Alene mining country as improper, unnecessary and unlawful, and that the president be requested to withdraw the troops in Shoshone county unless the permit system be immediately revoked, the writ of habeas corpus restored to the citizens of said county and martial law declared to be at an end.

It was also further resolved that the sense and purpose of the resolution was in no wise to influence in maintaining and keeping troops within the limits of Shoshone county to aid the proper officers in the execution of the civil law.

The resolution is preceded by a long recital of the alleged improper conditions existing.

Lawyer Dill to Go to New Jersey to Secure the Incorporation of the New Company-Further Insures Pittsburg as World's Steel Center.

PITTSBURG, March 24.—The organization of the new Carnegie Steel company is under way. Attorney James B. Dill, the eastern corporation lawyer, arrived in Pittsburg, prepared the papers in consultation with ex-Judge James H. Reed, had them signed and the entire capitalization was subscribed. Mr. Dill will likely return to Newark this evening and file the articles of incorpora-tion in New Jersey on Monday. The amalgamated company will still fur-ther insure the supremacy of E tisburg as the iron and sleel center of the

The stock capital of the new company will be $160,000,000 and bonds, bearing 5 per cent interest, will be issued to the same amount. This will make the aggregate capital $320,000,000. The bonds will represent the conservative book value of the concerns incorporated, as figured out by Andrew Carnegie, H. C. Frick, Henry Phipps and other leaders in the combination movement. The capital stock and bonds together will represent the actual value of the property, or its earning power, according to the best estimates of the Carnegie partners, who have been figuring on the matter for weeks.

The interest on the bonds will only require the payment annually of a little more than $8,000,000, but it is believed that the company's earnings will never in the future go this low.

The Carnegie Steel company, limited which carries with it the control of the various railroads, docks, iron ore min-ing property and steamship lines, will be taken into the new Carnegie company at a valuation of $250,000,000 This will be exchanged for in stock and bonds of the new capitalization, $125, 600,000 in bonds representing the newly arranged boos value, and $125,000,000 in stock representing the value Mr. Carnegie places on his own value above the book value.

It was said that no water will be allowed in the company, and it is generally believed by bankers that the estimates are conservative, taking into account the great earning power of the property. The book value will be guaranteed, and will naturally be the base value of the company to be taken in. Only one kind of stock will be issued.

The H. C. Frick Coke company will be taken into the amalgamation at a value of about $75,000,000. About $35,$600,000 will be paid to the coke shareholders in the bonds of the new Carnegic company, and a similar amount will taken in stock. the odd $5,000,000 will be placed in the new company treasury.

Partners in the Carnegie and Frick companies were summoned from all parts of the country to affix their signa-tures to the transfer of their stock to the new corporation and to subscribe to the capital of the new company. All the shares and bonds that were apportioned to each stockholder in the two companies were taken readily, and last evening Mr. Dill had the entire capital subscribed for.

Bishop Fowler Points Out the Desire of Methodism-Week of Prayer Next Week.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 24.-Bishop Charles H. Fowler, who has returned from the Philadelphia conference to the Episcopal residence in this city, gave expression of his views, which, in substance, follow:

The week of fasting, or abstinence, or prayer of the Methodist Episcopal church will extend from March 25 to April 1, inclusive. Each person makes his own interpretation of abstinence. In reviewing our work over the whole world, we found we have declined a little in numbers, perhaps one-half of 1 per cent. Numbers are not the most important element then comes quantity; the more the better, provided we cun digest the numbers.

Every fifth grave in the south where reposes a blue uniform contains a communicant from a Methodist Episcopal church. So we must plant the heathen continents with Methodist graves. This week will steady our ranks and stiffen our staying power and keep the coming generation from irreparable blunders. We want at least 2,000,000 converts in the next two years.

HOUSE BILL UNAMENDED.

Republican Tariff Senators Authorized Foraker to Try to Secure Passage In Senate.

Washington, March 24.—The Republican caucus committee of the senate authorized Senator Foraker in definite terms to propose the separation of the tariff feature from the Porto Ricon governmental bill and to attempt to pass the house tariff bill without amendment. The program is to vote down all amendments if possible to do so, and pass the bill as it came from the house without any changes whatever.

The element in the Republican ranks in the senate favoring free trade with Porto Rico decided at a conference to oppose any action looking to an early vote and to ask for further time in case the question should come up.

When the senate adjourned, several of the members of the Republican caucus committee admitted that no great progress had been made. They said there would be no withdrawal from the determination to press for an early vote, and to put the house bill throughout without amendment. Other members, however, expressed the opinion that the bill might yet be modified so as to meet the objections of the free trade Espublicans of the senate. They admitted that the represer tatives of the house had told them there was great danger in altering the house measure in any respect.

One member of the committee stated that it was the purpose of the committee to ask every day that a time be set for taking a vote, thus placing the responsibility for any delay that might occur upon the free traders.

PORTO RICONS STARVE; RIOTS THREATENED.

Delay of Congress Causes Bad Feeling, Which Will Take Years to Overcome.

PONCE, Porto Rico, March 24.—The situation here is now more serious than it has been at any time before since the terrible hurricane. In many places the poor are starving. The price of rice, beans and codfish has increased from 50 to 100 per cent.

Demonstrations against the delay of the United States government in settling open questions have recently been held at Mayaguez, Yauco, Arecibo, Aguadilla, Fijardo, Juana Diaz, Guayama and many other towns. The people are unable to understand the delay, and they condemn all Americans indiscriminately. Bad feeling is arising which it will take years to overcome.

Even riots are threatened. Trouble is almost inevitable unless the tension is relieved. Even wealthy land owners can not command ready cash, and many Americans are penniless, being glad to work for their board.

He stated that while he did not repudiate the action the attorney general took in pleading that the writ was suspended, that officer acted on his own responsibility on law pleadings. The governor said his attitude as to the military was that of commander-in-chief of the military forces in the state.

When asked how much longer he intended to continue the military control he said it would be continued until there was fall assurance that order was restored and all rights secured from vio-

London, March 24.-4:15 a. m.-Lord Roberts' main army continues vaiting at Bloemfontein. The sentime tal interest in the fate of Mafeking has in-tensified with Colonel Plumer's forced retirement to Crocedils Pools, where he was two months ago. Relief from the north now dwindles to improbability.

Commandant Oliver's commando, with 2,000 wagons, are reported on the Basutoland frontier, toiling northward toward Kroonstadt, via Ladybrand. Incident of Powers' Hearing, at Frankfort, Ky .- Raid of Mountaineers

Guarded Against.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 24 .- The preliminary examination of Secre ary of State Caleb Powers, charged with abetting the assassination of William Goebel, began before Judge Moore, in this city. The court house was guarded, inside and out, by militia and scores of deputy sheriffs, armed with Winchester rifles, to prevent possible interference from "mountaineers" who were reported on their way to Frankfort. The mountaineers failed to appear. The witnesses included Warden Eph Lillard, Detective Dee Armstrong, Sheriff Bosworth, of Fayette county, who arrested Secretary Powers and Captain John Davis, and Silas Jones, who is now under bonds, charged vith complicity in the murder. The testimony tended to show that the shots came from the section of the executive building in which Secretary Powers' office is located, although no one swore that the shots were from the secre tary's office. The strongest evidence, perhaps, was given by Silas Jones, who walked into Gevernor Taylor's ante room when the shots were fired.

There he saw Captain Davis and Governor Taylor, among others.

There was considerable excitement, the governor came to the door and wanted to know who was shot.

"Did you see any one try to open Caleb Powers' door?" asked Attorney Polsgrove.
"Yes, I saw a man with sandy whiskers trying to open the door. He struck it with a hatchet," replied Mr. Jones.

Jones said there was much noise, but he could not say that he heard any from Secretary Powers' office. On cross-examination Jones said he saw Powers leave his office during the morning for Louisville. This was previous to the shooting. No evidence was adduced tending to show that the defendant was implicated in any con spiracy, but in one of the frequent wordy disputes between the attorneys for the defense and the commonwealth, the fact was brought out that F. Wharton Golden, who is said to have made a confession, will be put on the witness stand before the hearing ends.

Brown made the point that a man can not be burg and to the lowest point since April convicted as an aider of a crime unless some principal is convicted of the crime. As the actual murderer of Goebel has not yet been named, the point possibly involved the liberty of Secretary Powers. Judge Moore ruled against the defense.

Prosecuting Attorney Polsgrove said that sufficient evidence had already been heard to warrant holding Powers, but that the case would be much stronger before he was through. On the other hand former Governor Brown, for the defense, expressed himself as well pleased with the situation, regarding the evidence that far as decidedly weak

FIRST WEEK OF NEW LAW.

Satisfactory to Treasury and Banks-Carnegle-Frick Settlement Helps Iron. Dun's Review.

NEW YORK, March 24 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today, said in part:

In its first week of operation, the new monetary bill has given satisfaction at the treasury and to banks. Applications for new 2 per cents have exceeded $106,000,000, and the net increase in bank circulation is already over $10,000,-000. As the rate at which new circulation can be issued is limited, except for banks which gave orders in advance of the bill, and the issues at first are largely for the increase of notes to the rar value of bonds deposited, little can yet be in-ferred regarding the other increase, though applications indicate that it will be large for interior banks. The release of millions employed in preparation for action under the new measure has caused in bank returns considerable changes, which are nominal, rather than real, and the money markets are undisturbed.

The reported settlement of the Carnegie-Frick controversy is of t'an greatest importance to the iron and seel industry. A fight between such forces would in the end have affected prices and values beyond calculation, while the combination of interests now said to be agreed upon may prove revolu-tionary in its influence. Whether markets will be immediately affected is not clear. As yet the tendency toward reaction of prices continues, though in the Pittsburg region Bessemer and basic pig are strong, But eastern Bes semer and Grey forge and southern pig are sold there at prices below those governing in larger transactions, and it is only the demand for steel-making iron which appears to exceed the supply. Eastern markets are weaker, with reduction of $1 per ton at Philadelphia in some grades. month, and considerable American purchases of some grades indicate true position of the prices asked here. Yet the markets here are called stronger in tone, although of the sales reported much the greater part were at concessions, and manufacturers are doing very little. Sales at the three chief markets were only 4,800,900 pounds, of which 3,771,-An incident occurred that showed the feeling 500 were domestic. The state of the goods market does not encourage manufacturers to pay the prices now asked. There is not only little ground to expect an advance in prices, but in other than the leading grades some concessions are frequently made to secure transactions, and the business is still disappointingly restricted. The advance in wheat which followed statements of the quantity in farmers' hands has not been maintained, and the decline the past week has been 13/8 cents, corn yielding also about 16 cent.

Failures for the week were 183 in the United States, against 200 last year, and 27 in Canada, against 240 last year.

Baltimore and Onto preterroa, winon was pushed up at one time nearly three points above Thursday night. While the preferred was thus rising heavy selling continued in the common stock.

The local traction stocks showed some positive weakness and were something of a drag on the market, as was Sugar. The local tractions were sold on renewed apprehension that a heavy tax would be levied under the new fran-chise tax law. A sudden spurt to 1643/4 by Metropolitan, after having sold at 160 a few minutes before. caused rallies in this group and had a steadying effect on the whole market, which was tending downwards up to that time. The weakness in Sugar was due to the explicit announcement that recent negotiations for a compromise of the trade war had been abandoned. The iron and steel stocks continued dull and rather heavy on account of the machinists' strike.

Money continued in good supply up to the close. The sub-treasury has commenced to disburse the premium on government bonds deposited for conversion into the new 2s, and as a consequence the losses by the banks for the week on sub-treasury operations are reduced to $1,187,000, and this is almost offset by receipts of gold from Canada and other points. The shipments to the interior are almost exactly offset by the receipts.

The bond market was less active than Thursday and yielded at some points in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,585,000.

United States 2s advanced 1/2 and the refunding 2s, when issued, declined 1/2 in the bid price.

Chicago Grain, Provisions and Pork.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The wheat market Friday was early depressed by the enormous Argentine shipments, but reacted later on the big cash business and sympathy with the corn rally, closing firm, May 18c under Thursday. May corn closed %c improved and May oats a shade up. Provisions were strong and active, lending more or less support to the grain pits. May pork closed 17½@ 20c higher; May lard and May ribs each 10c improved.

They settled on every particle of exposed flesh, and the thousands who failed to find room there covered our caps and backs till the color of the cloth was nearly hidden.

"We reached camp at 11 o'clock a. m. thoroughly done up, and even then we could not sleep, our blood being so feverish from the mosquito bites. My neck and wrists were swollen up with lumps the size of sparrows' eggs. Unfortunately, our mosquito nets had been left in camp, as we had quite enough collecting gear and guns to carry, and expected to be home hours earlier. Oil of lavender gives temporary relief from persecution, but its effects soon pass off.

"A mixture of half turpentine and half olive oil is also useful in ordinary cases, but when the enemy are brought into good working order by a hot sun and calm day nothing stops them except a veil. This desire of the mosquito for blood is a strange puzzle. Not one in a million nor any of his ancestors for generations in the arctic can have tasted it, yet all rush for the first human being or reindeer they meet. I have heard of the Samoyeds being driven mad by their bites."-"Around NEW YORK, March 24.-Prices of Novaya Zemlya," by H. J. Pearson.
